NEW YEAR, NEW BEGINNING

Wednesday, January 1, 2025

*“Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.” — Isaiah 43:19 (KJV)

Congratulations and welcome to a new year! As we step into 2025, we should be grateful to God for bringing us into this new year. It's understandable that you might have goals from the previous year that you couldn't accomplish, but don't carry that burden and disappointment into the new year. Start with a heart of thanksgiving and recognize that God has given you an opportunity for a fresh start.

You can embark on something new for yourself. A new page has been opened, a brand new chapter awaits you. No two years are exactly the same; while they may seem similar, each year is distinct. Don't let the limitations of the past year become a stronghold. Don't assume that the same obstacles from last year will appear in this new year. Approach the year with optimism and a heart full of possibilities. Embrace new opportunities with an open mind.

Our opening scripture, Isaiah 43:19 (KJV), says, “Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.”

In this context, the term "wilderness" refers to an unpleasant situation. This verse is meant to give you hope. In this new year, God is telling you that He will transform your difficult situations into favorable ones.

He will bring victory out of your troubles and turn your mourning into joy. Be encouraged, for God has many wonderful things in store for you this year.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Dear Father, thank You for this new year and the many great things that await me throughout the year. I am starting 2025 with a heart full of gratitude. Thank You, Lord, for making this year beautiful, great, and a testament to Your goodness. In Jesus' name, Amen!

NEW YEAR GOALS

Thursday, January 2, 2025

*“And the LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, ait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.” — Habakkuk 2:2-3 (KJV)

Vision is the ability to think about or plan the future with imagination or wisdom. It involves having a mental picture of what you want to accomplish. This mental picture is called imagination. Visions can come in the form of ideas. What plans do you have for the new year? What ideas do you want to accomplish? Do you have things you want to achieve this year? Are there things the Lord has brought to your heart? Do you have dreams? If your answer is YES, then make it plain by writing them down.

Writing down your visions will help you stay focused. You will not be easily distracted by other things. Proverbs 4:27 (KJV) says, “Turn not to the right hand nor to the left...” Maintain your focus by writing down your visions. Another important step after writing down your vision is to review them periodically. This will keep your inspiration fresh in your mind. 2 Chronicles 15:7 (NIV) says, “But as for you, be strong and do not give up, for your work will be rewarded.” An individual who has written goals remains strong in the midst of opposition. Even if there are several failed attempts, such a person remains courageous and perseveres. And God rewards such persons in due season for all their efforts. Write down your goals for 2025, make them plain, and run with them.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Lord, continue to make me a visionary and a focused person. You give me divine and innovative ideas. I am a goal-getter. I will accomplish all my goals for this new year because I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me. In Jesus' name, Amen!

WHAT CAN YOU SEE?

Friday, January 3, 2025

Genesis 13:15 (KJV) - “for all the land which thou seest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed for ever.”

Even if Abraham was standing on a hill, he could only see a small part of the land. So how did God give him all the land? The answer is that Abraham saw beyond his physical eyes. He saw with his heart, through the eyes of his imagination. With his imagination, he was able to envision the entire land.

Your imagination is very important. It has creative power. No matter where you are or what situation you find yourself in, always see yourself beyond your present circumstances. Stop seeing failure, disappointment, lack, or impossibility. Just See yourself rising from that sickbed, victorious and successful. See yourself becoming great, influential, and thriving.

Jeremiah 1:12 (KJV) – “Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast well seen: for I will hasten my word to perform it.”

From the scripture above, we see that God acknowledged the fact that Jeremiah had seen correctly. I believe God wouldn't have hastened to fulfill His word if Jeremiah hadn't seen properly. God wants you to see clearly; He wants you to imagine the right things because they will eventually manifest in the physical world. That's why He encourages you to guard your heart diligently, because from your heart spring forth the things you will see in your life (Proverbs 4:23 KJV).

God is always working to bring to pass what you see in your heart. Therefore, ensure you see things the right way.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Dear Father, I thank you for the gift of sight you have given me. I declare that my heart is anointed to see only the things You want me to see. I do not accommodate negative thoughts or imaginations. I bring forth good treasures from my heart, in Jesus' name. Amen.

JUST BELIEVE

Saturday, January 4, 2025

Genesis 15:6 (KJV) – “And he believed in the LORD; and he counted it to him for righteousness.”

In the New Testament, the new creation is justified by faith in God and not by works. So how is it that in the Old Testament, Abraham was the only person who was justified and declared righteous because of his faith in God? Genesis 15:6 (KJV) says, “And he believed in the LORD; and he counted it to him for righteousness.”

This implies that there was something very unique about Abraham. He was called a friend of God and the father of faith. Abraham secured blessings for himself and his descendants, of which you are a part. He pleased the Lord through his faith, and God rewarded him, as we see in Hebrews 11:6 (KJV) – “But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.”

“Even when there was no reason for hope, Abraham kept hoping...” (Romans 4:18, NLT). No matter the stage of life you are in right now – whether your health is deteriorating or your situation seems hopeless – God wants you to keep believing in Him. He will heal you, bring you out victoriously, and grant you the miracle you desire. Amen!

PRAYER / DECLARATION

I declare that I am strong and very courageous. My faith is alive, active, and firm. I'm not moved by what I face, but by the living Word of God. I refuse to doubt the promises of God. I remain steadfast in faith, always giving glory to God.

WE ARE GOD'S PROJECT MANAGERS

Sunday, January 5, 2025

“Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labor. For we are laborers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building.”
- 1 Corinthians 3:8-9 (KJV)

As the topic today suggests, we are indeed God's project managers. God's project is to save mankind, and we are laboring with Him to achieve this. This means He is relying on us as His project managers to carry out His plan on earth in a timely manner. Amazingly, we will be rewarded for our labor when we get to heaven. This has been God's plan for humanity since before the foundation of the world.

We should be filled with passion for being part of what pleases God. God's desire is to save souls and deliver people from eternal condemnation. 1 Timothy 2:4 (KJV) says, “Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.” God wants all people to receive salvation and come to the full knowledge of the truth. This truth will build your faith and enable you to enjoy your inheritance in Christ Jesus.

Before we were born, God predestined that we would carry out His purpose on the earth (Jeremiah 1:5, KJV). That's why He left us on earth after we gave our lives to Him. God has equipped us with the necessary tools for this task, namely, the Holy Spirit and His Word. There are many lessons to learn from the scriptures, and God expects us to study the Bible for ourselves in order to discover the things that will help us become effective in executing His project during our time.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Heavenly Father, thank You for making me a co-laborer with You in saving lives and bringing people into their inheritance in Christ. Today, I affirm that I am an effective soul winner, and through me, many will come to know and serve You in spirit and in truth, in Jesus' name, Amen!

LAWS OF DIVINE RESTORATION

Monday, January 6, 2025

Genesis 13:14-15 (KJV) - “And the LORD said unto Abram, after that Lot was separated from him, Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art northward, and southward, and eastward, and westward: For all the land which thou seest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed forever.”

Restoration simply means the recovery or return of something to its original or unimpaired condition. It involves compensation or the restitution of something lost. When God restores, He not only recovers what was lost, but He also adds more to it, even in abstract areas such as joy. For instance, if someone's promotion was delayed for five years, during restoration, God backdates the promotions and compensates for the benefits, honorariums, and non-concrete things like love, excitement, and happiness (Isaiah 61:3).

In the earlier verses of Genesis, Abraham was wrongfully treated by Lot. He was deeply hurt by his nephew's decision, as Lot showed no regard for Abraham's rights as his master, elder, and uncle. Lot's departure caused Abraham great grief because he had given up everything in his homeland, and Lot was the only relative who had accompanied him. Due to his childlessness, Abraham might have hoped and treated Lot as an heir, having adopted him after Lot’s father passed away. In Genesis 13:14-15, the Lord comforted Abraham after Lot’s departure, assuring him of all the land he would receive, despite being left with what seemed like a less desirable portion.

There are two laws of restoration you need to understand:

Firstly, what you see matters – For restoration to take place, it's important how you view yourself and your situation. Don't see yourself as defeated, miserable, disappointed, or hopeless. God wants you to see yourself like Abraham did: see yourself possessing all that was lost and more. Be courageous and declare, "I'm coming out strong, I'm coming out victorious, I'm on my way to the top, I'm recovering everything, Amen!"

Secondly, restoration has an appointed time, and it is a process – As seen in Abraham’s life, God’s promises were not fulfilled immediately. Abraham didn’t possess all the land at once, and his descendants didn’t fill the earth overnight. God's timing is perfect, and restoration often requires patience. Don't rush God. Stay focused on His word, and in due time, all that He has promised to restore will come to pass

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Dear Lord, thank You for the blood of Jesus that was shed for me. As a result of the finished work of Christ, all that I have lost is restored. I declare that my health, finances, family, joy, peace, and everything about me is restored to Your original design for me, in Jesus' name, Amen!

CHRISTIAN SERVICE IN THE LOCAL CHURCH
—————

Tuesday, January 7, 2025

“For God is not unjust. He will not forget how hard you have worked for Him and how you have shown your love to Him by caring for other believers, as you still do.”

- Hebrews 6:10 (NLT)

Many times, when Christians say they are going to church, some don't fully understand the purpose. Concerning service, we go to church to render service to the body of Christ, but many go to church expecting others to serve them. They arrive to find everything set – the sanctuary tidy, chairs well-arranged, bathrooms cleaned, the choir organized, and the sound system perfect – without seeing the importance of being involved in these efforts.

As we see in our opening verse, “For God is not unjust. He will not forget how hard you have worked for Him and how you have shown your love to Him by caring for other believers, as you still do” (Hebrews 6:10, NLT). One way to demonstrate our love for the Lord is by caring for other believers. Many people work hard before church services to ensure that when others arrive, they are well cared for. They do this by joining various departments in the church, attending rehearsals, participating in regular evangelism and outreach, and looking for ways to be actively involved in the smooth running of the church, so others feel welcomed when they come. Finally, Mark 10:45 (NLT) says, “For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve others and to give His life as a ransom for many.” Jesus, our perfect example, served, and you too can make yourself available to serve in your local church, regardless of your busy schedule. God sees all the good works and services you render in the church. He will not forget them and will reward you for your labors. Make the decision today to be actively involved in your church and join a department. God bless you.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Thank You, precious Father, for giving me the opportunity to serve in Your house and among my brethren. I will always serve with a heart full of love, passion, and excitement. I will remain faithful and committed in my service to You. Thank You, Lord, for You are my great reward, in Jesus' name, Amen!

DON'T MISS CHURCH SERVICE

Wednesday, January 8, 2025

*“And let us not neglect our meeting together, as some people do, but encourage one another, especially now that the day of His return is drawing near.” - Hebrews 10:25 (NLT)

In the early church, Apostle Paul noticed that some people had developed the habit of missing church gatherings. While he understood that certain situations might arise unexpectedly, some had become accustomed to skipping church regularly. He admonished them to stop such behavior. In today's world, many people also fall into the habit of missing church services, and when questioned, they often respond with, "Church is in the heart." This is a deception from the devil, and we must be cautious not to be misled by such reasoning.

Matthew 18:20 (ESV) shows us one of the key benefits of attending church services: “For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I among them.” Jesus promises His presence, even in small gatherings. Be assured that when you go to church, God's presence will bless and impact your life.

Psalms 50:5 (ESV) further reminds us: “Gather to me my faithful ones, who made a covenant with me by sacrifice!” Isn't it wonderful that God calls you faithful? He delights when we gather in His name, and attending church services is one of these important gatherings.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

I am a persistent doer of the Word, and I act promptly on God’s instructions. I will not forsake attending church. I am committed to being consistent in church services and bringing others to the Lord, helping them grow and become involved, in Jesus’ name, Amen!

REGULATE THE TRANSACTIONS OF YOUR HEART

Thursday, January 9, 2025

“Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.” - Proverbs 4:23 (KJV)

To regulate means to be in control, while transactions refer to activities. Therefore, be in control of the activities of your heart. It is your responsibility to monitor what goes in and out of your heart because the transactions of your heart will reflect in your life. It will soon become obvious what you have been feeding your heart. It's similar to eating healthy meals which nourish your body.

I love how the Good News Translation puts Proverbs 4:23: “Be careful how you think; your life is shaped by your thoughts.” Wow! God is warning us to be mindful of our thoughts because our lives will be shaped by them. We must carefully regulate what we allow into our minds. Say to yourself, “Never again will I allow garbage into my heart.” Garbage refers to anything that is worthless, inferior, or vile.

Who you are and where you are today are the results of your thoughts from yesterday. If you expect a better future, start now by filling your heart with the right things. Make up your mind to think on what is good. Replace those negative thoughts and imaginations with the Word of God. Don't entertain thoughts of fear, lack, disease, failure, disappointment, or any other negative or unclean thoughts.

Philippians 4:8 (KJV) says: “Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.”

PRAYER / DECLARATION

My mind is anointed to conceive thoughts inspired by the Holy Spirit. I receive positive, faith-filled thoughts. I have a sound mind, and I diligently guard my heart at all times, in Jesus' name, Amen!

THE WORD OF GOD PURIFIES YOUR HEART

Friday, January 10, 2025

“Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.” - John 15:3 (KJV)

Have you been struggling with negative thoughts, feelings, or emotions? The solution is the Word of God. Many times, people find themselves in situations where certain negative thoughts flood their minds so much that they end up controlling their actions. It could be thoughts of trauma — war, abusive relationships, grief, accidents, hurt, worry, fear of death, fear of the unknown, anxiety, etc. The solution is to fill your mind with God’s Word. Study the Word diligently, and it will address the situation.

Give the Word of God unrestricted access to dwell in your heart at all times. David the psalmist said, “Your word I have hidden in my heart, that I might not sin against You” (Psalms 119:11, NKJV). He made God’s Word permanent in his heart; he treasured and stored it there. The reason was that God’s Word purifies the heart, allowing only thoughts that please God, which then lead to actions in line with His will. This is one of the keys to living a life free from sin.

The Word of God has a healing and purifying power (Proverbs 4:22, ESV). You can take a daily dose of it, and it will cleanse and purify your heart, and even your entire being. When a sick person goes to the hospital, the doctor prescribes medication and advises adherence to the dosage at specific intervals. God's Word works in the same way. Don't skip the doses. Be consistent with it, and before long, it will cleanse your thoughts and free you from any negative or controlling influences.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

I declare that as I study the Word of God, it cleanses me from every negative thought and emotion. I trust in the Lord at all times, and I experience perfect peace of mind. My mind is anointed, and only thoughts that come from God enter my heart, in Jesus' name, Amen!

BENEFITS OF TITHING

Saturday, January 11, 2025

*“And blessed be the most high God, which hath delivered thine enemies into thy hand. And he gave him tithes of all.” - Genesis 14:20 (KJV)

It was Abram who gave Melchizedek a tithe of all (i.e., the spoil). Who is Melchizedek? Melchizedek is a type of Christ. Like Jesus, Melchizedek is both a king and a priest; he is referred to as "king of peace" and "king of righteousness" (Hebrews 7:2, KJV). Abraham, the father of God's chosen people, performed this act, which symbolizes the practice his descendants would follow in the future.

This custom of paying a tithe, or a tenth part, has long been the practice of God's people. According to Genesis 28:22 (KJV), “And this stone, which I have set for a pillar, shall be God's house: and of all that thou shalt give me I will surely give the tenth unto thee.” This principle is not restricted to the Old Testament because Abraham began a lineage of godly people, a lineage that is not just biological but spiritual – the new creation (Galatians 3:29, KJV). If tithing were merely an Old Testament law, why do we still claim to be the seed of Abraham? If we belong to Christ, we are automatically Abraham's descendants, which is a New Testament truth. It is important to follow this principle for the preservation of blessings. This practice existed before the law of Moses.

Genesis 14:18-20 (KJV) says, “And Melchizedek king of Salem brought forth bread and wine: and he was the priest of the most high God. And he blessed him, and said, Blessed be Abram of the most high God, possessor of heaven and earth: and blessed be the most high God, which hath delivered thine enemies into thy hand. And he gave him tithes of all.” In this passage, we see that Melchizedek provided food and wine and blessed Abram before Abram gave his tithe. This teaches us to follow the same principle of giving our tithes whenever God provides for and blesses us. Be a doer of the Word, not just a hearer. God is always looking for faithfulness, even when no one is watching (Luke 16:10). There are more blessings for those who are faithful in the small things.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Dear Father, thank you for making me a seed of Abraham and a partaker of the Abrahamic blessings. My blessings are limitless, and I will flourish in all good things, in Jesus' name, Amen!

PRIDE IS DANGEROUS

Sunday, January 12, 2025

*“Pride goeth before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall.” - Proverbs 16:18 (KJV)

Pride and disobedience often go hand in hand. Pride occurs when you elevate your ideas or opinions above the principles of God’s Word. You must consciously examine your thoughts and words to ensure they align with God’s teachings. Keep a diligent watch over your heart to allow only thoughts and ideas that are consistent with God’s Word.

God hates pride, as we see in Proverbs 8:13 (NLT) - “All who fear the Lord will hate evil. Therefore, I hate pride and arrogance, corruption and perverse speech.” Our lives should be pleasing to God. Therefore, let’s learn to avoid pride by aligning our thoughts with God’s Word. “For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.” - Hebrews 4:12 (KJV)

Lot’s separation from Abraham serves as an example of how pride crept into his heart, leading him to make a serious mistake. Pride causes people to act foolishly. If Lot had been wise, he would have returned to his uncle to apologize instead of ending up living in a cave. Living in a cave is a sign of the poverty he eventually faced. I've heard people say things like, "I'd rather die than apologize" or "I'd rather be broke than say I'm sorry." Perhaps Lot felt this way, even after losing everything.

The prodigal son, on the other hand, returned to his father, repented, and his identity and inheritance were restored (Luke 15:21-22). Genesis 19:17 (KJV) says: “And it came to pass, when they had brought them forth abroad, that he said, Escape for thy life; look not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the plain; escape to the mountain, lest thou be consumed.” Who knows? If Lot had obeyed and gone to the mountain, he might have seen the land of Canaan and decided to reconcile with his uncle. If you've lost everything like the prodigal son or Lot, don't let pride stop you from experiencing restoration. Repent, make peace with God or whoever you need to reconcile with, and start afresh. I pray that God will make all things new and beautiful for you again, rewrite your story, and give you fresh hope and a renewed destiny.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

I rebuke every trace of pride and arrogance in my heart. I reject lofty thoughts, and from today, God's Word will guide my thoughts and actions. I am filled with meekness, humility, peace, forgiveness, love, and mercy, in Jesus' name, Amen!

DANGERS OF DISOBEDIENCE

Monday, January 13, 2025

"When they were safely out of the city, one of the angels ordered, 'Run for your lives! Don't look back or stop anywhere in the valley! Escape to the mountains, or you will be swept away!' 'Oh no, my Lord!' Lot begged. 'You have been so gracious to me and saved my life, and you have shown such great kindness. But I cannot go to the mountains. Disaster would catch up to me there, and I would soon die. See, there is a small village nearby. Please let me go there instead; don't you see how small it is? Then my life will be saved.'" - Genesis 19:17-20 (NLT)

Disobedience is altering an instruction. This, oftentimes, originates from hesitation, which is clearly similar to unwillingness. Someone who disregards a given instruction and chooses to act their own way is demonstrating disobedience. Many believers try to have their own way with God, preferring to follow their desires rather than God's instructions. But God's word is meant to be followed, not negotiated. The moment you start questioning whether to do what God has instructed, alternative options arise.

The devil often uses this strategy to deceive God's people. The key is to obey God's instructions without hesitation. When we look for alternatives to God's directives, we neither please Him nor achieve the results He desires, even if our actions seem logical in the physical world. In 1 Samuel 15:18 (NLT), the Lord sent Saul on a mission saying, "Go and completely destroy the sinners, the Amalekites, until they are all dead.” But Saul acted according to what he thought was right, disobeying God's command. As a result, God rejected him, and he lost his throne.

Psalm 62:11 (KJV) says, “God hath spoken once; twice have I heard this.” Lot hesitated to follow the angels’ instructions, his wife disobeyed by looking back and became a pillar of salt, and as seen in the opening verse, Lot negotiated with the angels. He thought he was being wise by suggesting going to a nearby village. However, after moving to the village, he feared its inhabitants and ended up living in a cave. This led to further consequences – his daughters got him drunk, and he committed incest with them (Genesis 19:36, NLT).

“But Samuel replied, ‘What is more pleasing to the Lord: your burnt offerings and sacrifices or your obedience to His voice? Listen! Obedience is better than sacrifice, and submission is better than offering the fat of rams.’” - 1 Samuel 15:22 (NLT). Ultimately, obedience is better than sacrifice. Act on God’s word promptly; don’t hesitate, and don’t alter His instructions.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

I am a persistent doer of God’s word. I act swiftly on His instructions in every situation. I will never be disobedient to heavenly directives. God’s word is working in me, producing results in every area of my life, family, finances, and all that concerns me in Jesus' name, Amen!

LET HIM THAT STEAL, STEAL NO MORE

Tuesday, January 14, 2025

*“Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labor, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth.” — Ephesians 4:28 (KJV)

Stealing is simply taking possession of what does not rightfully belong to you. It doesn't always involve force; it can also happen through deception. Stealing isn't limited to money, cars, or material possessions; it can also involve intangible things, such as stealing someone's business ideas without permission or hijacking their vision.

Depriving others of their benefits or rightful compensation is also considered stealing. Taking another person's spouse is a form of theft, and many other acts fall under this category. Stealing stems from covetousness and selfishness. In Genesis 12:17 (NLT), it says, “But the Lord sent terrible plagues upon Pharaoh and his household because of Sarai, Abram's wife.” Although Abraham lied to Pharaoh, he did so out of fear that Pharaoh would take his wife by killing him first. The consequence of this was that terrible plagues afflicted Egypt.

We also see in Genesis 20:18 (NLT), “For the Lord had caused all the women to be infertile because of what happened with Abraham’s wife, Sarah.” This was a recurring event. When you steal from others, you often inherit their problems. Abimelech took Abraham’s wife, and the result was that all the women in the land became barren. Perhaps the challenges you face are a result of material or immaterial things you’ve forcefully or deceitfully taken from others.

Psalm 62:10 (KJV) says, “Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery: If riches increase, set not your heart upon them.” Similarly, Exodus 20:17 (NLT) says, “You must not covet your neighbor’s house. You must not covet your neighbor’s wife, male or female servant, ox or donkey, or anything else that belongs to your neighbor.” Dreaming big is admirable, but not at the expense of others. There is a difference between having big aspirations and being greedy. Be content with what you have, and it will save you from much trouble.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Dear Father, thank You for Your word that has brought new understanding to me today. Forgive me for any ignorance I’ve shown. Thank You, Lord, for cleansing me through the word I’ve received today. I am content with all You have blessed me with, and I will always love, bless, uplift, and support others, in Jesus’ name, Amen!

THE LORD WILL CAUSE YOU TO LAUGH

Wednesday, January 15, 2025

*“And Sarah declared, ‘God has brought me laughter.
All who hear about this will laugh with me.’”*
— Genesis 21:6 (NLT)

God’s word is “Yes” and “Amen”! He is faithful to the end and able to fulfill all His promises to you. No matter how long you’ve been waiting on God, rest assured that He will show up for you with amazing surprises that will cause you to laugh.

Sarah was 90 years old when she gave birth to Isaac. This was an incredible miracle because it seemed unimaginable for a woman of her age to conceive. The Bible says in Genesis 21:6-7 (NLT), “And Sarah declared, ‘God has brought me laughter. All who hear about this will laugh with me.’ ‘Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse a baby? Yet I have given Abraham a son in his old age!’” My prayer for you is that the Lord will grant you the miracle you desire. He will cause you to laugh, and all who hear of your miracle will laugh and rejoice with you, in Jesus’ name, Amen!

Psalms 30:5 (KJV) says, “...Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.” During times of hardship, it may feel as though the pain lasts forever, like someone who weeps through the night. But there is hope – joy will come in the morning. This joy will make you forget the sorrow you endured.

The Lord is ushering you into the morning of your life, where you will experience unending joy, peace, laughter, and happiness, in Jesus' name, Amen!

I also love what King David said: “When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion, we were like those who dreamed. Our mouths were filled with laughter, our tongues with songs of joy. Then it was said among the nations, ‘The Lord has done great things for them.’” (Psalms 126:1-2, NIV).

PRAYER / DECLARATION

My joy is restored, my peace is restored, my health is restored, my fortune is restored, and all that concerns me is restored. I have victory on every side, new miracles, and new testimonies. I am full of joy, happiness, excitement, and glory. The Lord is causing me to laugh, and I will continue to laugh and rejoice evermore, in Jesus' name, Amen!

HELPERS OF GOD

Thursday, January 16, 2025

“God is our refuge and strength, always ready to help in times of trouble.” — Psalms 46:1 (NLT)

The Bible says in Isaiah 41:13 (ESV), “For I, the Lord your God, hold your right hand; it is I who say to you, ‘Fear not, I am the one who helps you.’” God is your helper, not the other way around. God never asked you to help Him; He is always willing and ready to help you, if you will allow Him. What He expects from you is willingness and obedience.

Many believers feel that God is delaying in responding to their needs, that time is running out, or that His promises are taking too long to come to pass. This leads them to put themselves under unnecessary pressure, trying to find other ways to achieve similar results. Let’s consider the case of Abraham and Sarah: God promised to make Abraham a father of many nations, but Sarah felt she was too old to conceive. So, she suggested to Abraham that he go in with Hagar, her maidservant. She thought she was helping God to raise a descendant who would inherit Abraham’s blessings (Genesis 16:1-13). Hagar gave birth to Ishmael, but little did Sarah know that her attempt to help God would create a generation of enemies against the future heirs of Abraham – God’s people today. We can see this in the ongoing conflict between Israel and its enemies in the Middle East, a consequence of Sarah’s attempt to assist God in fulfilling His promise.

Another example is King Saul’s unlawful sacrifice in 1 Samuel 13. Israel was about to face the Philistines in battle, and the law required the priest to perform a sacrifice before they could engage in combat. They waited for seven days, but the priest had not yet arrived. In his impatience, King Saul decided to perform the sacrifice himself. After Saul’s action, Samuel the priest arrived. In 1 Samuel 13:13, Samuel said to Saul, “You have done foolishly. You have not kept the commandment of the Lord your God, which He commanded you. For now the Lord would have established your kingdom over Israel forever.” The result of Saul’s impatience was the loss of his throne.

Many people today compromise in the name of “helping God” to get things done more quickly. Some enter wrong marriages, businesses, investments, or move into unsuitable neighborhoods because they feel pressured by family, friends, or their own perception of time running out. But it’s essential to stay calm and composed in the midst of troubles. Isaiah 41:10 (ESV) says, “Fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.” God is your ever-present help in times of need; He upholds and strengthens you at all times.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

I take advantage of the Holy Spirit, who helps me at all times. I am strengthened and courageous in the face of every situation. I stand firm, unshaken by pressures, competition, or challenges. I soar higher and higher above all obstacles, in Jesus' name, Amen!

3 THE CURE FOR SPIRITUAL COMATOSE 8

Friday, January 17, 2025

“And He spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint.”
— Luke 18:1 (KJV)

Jesus told His disciples that people are meant to always pray and not faint. The opposite of prayer is not merely prayerlessness, but fainting or slumbering. When people stop praying, they grow weak. The word "faint" here can be likened to spiritual comatose, which many refer to as a coma.

In medical terms, comatose is a state of unconsciousness where a person is unable to wake up, often due to illness or injury. In a similar way, many Christians lose their spiritual awareness and perception because they lack prayer. We are created to pray; prayer sustains us and gives us life. Just as fish need water to survive, Christians need consistent prayer to maintain a healthy spiritual life. Paul illustrates this in Colossians 4:2 (KJV): “Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving.”

Those experiencing spiritual comatose often struggle with fear. Philippians 4:6 (NKJV) says, “Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God.” Consistent prayer drives away fear, anxiety, and depression. A steady prayer life helps to maintain both spiritual and physical well-being. “But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.” – Acts 6:4 (KJV)

Consistency in prayer and study of the Word provides the nourishment needed for a healthy spiritual life and a strong walk with the Lord.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

I am spiritually healthy, sound, and alive. I give myself continually to prayer and the study of God’s Word. I am fervent in prayer at all times, and my prayers prevail over every circumstance. The Word of God is working in me, producing what it speaks about, in Jesus’ name, Amen!

JESUS LOVES LITTLE CHILDREN

Saturday, January 18, 2025

“One day some parents brought their children to Jesus so He could lay His hands on them and pray for them. But the disciples scolded the parents for bothering Him. But Jesus said, ‘Let the children come to me. Don’t stop them! For the Kingdom of Heaven belongs to those who are like these children.’”

— Matthew 19:13-14 (NLT)

There are a few important lessons in this scripture. First, Jesus rebuked His disciples for trying to stop parents from bringing their children to Him. This shows that Jesus loves children and wants them to come to Him, indicating His deep interest in their lives. Unfortunately, some parents today do not prioritize taking their children to church. From the scripture, we see that these parents left their homes and made an effort to bring their children to Jesus for prayer and blessings. If they had stayed home, their children would not have received the blessing from Jesus. Parents should make it a point to bring their children to church, as they will be blessed for being in God’s presence.

If you truly love your children, you will train them in the right way. Proverbs 22:6 (KJV) says, “Train up a child in the way he should go: And when he is old, he will not depart from it.” A child’s behavior reflects their upbringing, and it is the responsibility of parents to guide them. When they grow up, they will continue to follow the path you have set for them. Bringing your children to church is part of this training, as it helps them learn godly principles that will shape their lives. This not only saves parents from future challenges but also leads to children who appreciate their upbringing and grow into godly adults.

1 Samuel 1:27-28 (NLT) says, “I asked the Lord to give me this boy, and He has granted my request. Now I am giving him to the Lord, and he will belong to the Lord his whole life.” Children are gifts from God. Love them as God loves them, dedicate them to God, take them to His house, and teach them how to serve Him, just like Hannah did with her son.

The opening scripture also teaches us that the Kingdom of Heaven belongs to those who are like children. This refers to the purity of mind and heart. Children are innocent, and God expects us to cultivate a pure heart as well. As adults, we must strive to maintain a clean and sincere heart, as there are blessings attached to it. “God blesses those whose hearts are pure, for they will see God.” – Matthew 5:8 (NLT)

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Thank You, Lord, for making me a custodian of children. I love and care for them. I pray that all children will grow up in the fear of the Lord, that they will always love God, and that they will delight in His ways, in Jesus' name, Amen!

ONE MORE ATTEMPT

Sunday, January 19, 2025

“So Naaman did what the man of God said. He went down and dipped himself in the Jordan River seven times, and he became pure and clean. His skin became soft like the skin of a baby.”

— 2 Kings 5:14 (ERV)

One more attempt reflects perseverance and determination. It is a sign of strong faith, and strong faith leads to the desired outcome. It means pressing on in the face of unfavorable or difficult circumstances, regardless of previous failures. Never give up until you achieve your goal. It implies persistence. In Genesis 18:23-32, we see Abraham continuously negotiating with God as He was set to destroy Sodom and Gomorrah. Abraham didn't give up; he kept pressing on until he reached an agreement with God, which resulted in the preservation of Lot and his family.

In Luke 18:4-5 (TPT), it says, “He ignored her plea for quite some time, but she kept asking. Eventually, he said to himself, ‘This widow keeps annoying me, demanding her rights, and I’m tired of listening to her. Even though I’m not a religious man, and I don’t care about the opinions of others, I’ll get her off my back by answering her claims for justice and I’ll rule in her favor. Then she’ll leave me alone.’” This scripture teaches the impact of persistence. The judge grew weary of the widow's continuous requests for justice. Imagine the widow waking up each morning, determined to present her request again, telling herself, “One more attempt might bring the change I need. Even if I’m turned down today, I will try again tomorrow.” This is the attitude of every person who has achieved greatness and victory in life.

In 1 Kings 18:43-44 (NKJV), it says, “...And said to his servant, ‘Go up now, look toward the sea.’ So he went up and looked, and said, ‘There is nothing.’ And seven times he said, ‘Go again.’ Then it came to pass the seventh time, that he said, ‘There is a cloud, as small as a man’s hand, rising out of the sea!’...” A severe drought had caused a famine that lasted for three years, and Elijah was praying for rain. There was no sign of rain as God had promised, but Elijah did not give up. He resolved to pray again, one more time, until the seventh attempt, and then the rain came. Perhaps you’ve been praying and making healing declarations over your body, but you’ve given up because you haven’t seen any changes. Remember, winners don’t quit. Continue from where you left off. Press on and press harder. Keep praying and making faith declarations for your healing. You might be 99% toward your breakthrough, and one more attempt could be the key to your miracle.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

My faith is alive. I am resolute and persistent. I am a winner, and I always triumph. I do not give up, no matter what challenges I face. My faith prevails every time, in Jesus’ name, Amen!

GOD WILL ALWAYS GIVE YOU A SIGN

Monday, January 20, 2025

“But you have an anointing from the Holy One (you have been set apart, specially gifted and prepared by the Holy Spirit), and all of you know (the truth because He teaches us, illuminates our minds, and guards us from error).” — 1 John 2:20 (AMP)

God never leaves us in the dark. He provides clues, often in the form of signs. These signs can be tangible or intangible, but they are usually distinct. Your ability to recognize these signs depends on your sensitivity to the Holy Spirit and how familiar you are with God’s Word. This is important because many of these signs have been experienced by people in the Bible, and they manifest in similar ways in our lives today.

In Genesis 18:2 (KJV), it says, “And he lift up his eyes and looked, and, lo, three men stood by him: and when he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself toward the ground.” Here, Abraham encountered three strangers and perceived they were not ordinary men. No one told him, but he had an inner witness and treated them well. It was later revealed that one of them was the Lord Himself. God never leaves us clueless.

God is always calling our attention to the signs He gives us. Sometimes, He allows certain things to happen so we can focus on what He is trying to communicate. These signs can be tangible – something physical – or intangible, like an impression or heaviness in your heart. Have you ever felt an inner prompting and weren't sure what it meant? If so, begin to pray in the Spirit when it happens again. As you pray, God will enlighten your mind and help you understand what He is communicating.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Thank You, Lord, for the gift of the Holy Spirit, who guides, teaches, and reveals all things to me. I have received an anointing from the Holy One, and He teaches me all things. I will never walk in darkness or confusion. Thank You, Lord, for enlightening my heart, in Jesus' name, Amen!

EVERY CHILD IS YOUR CHILD

Tuesday, January 21, 2025

“Lo, children are an heritage of the LORD: And the fruit of the womb is his reward.”

— Psalm 127:3 (KJV)

Children are gifts from God. They are precious and should be cherished and cared for. Not caring for children demonstrates a lack of appreciation for them. Jesus Christ is a gift to humanity, but while He was on earth, many mistreated Him. The Pharisees and others did not recognize the value of this divine gift. Similarly, those who mistreat children are no different from the Pharisees who mistreated Jesus.

Here are reasons why you should treat every child as if they were your own. Children learn from examples; therefore, be a positive role model for them to follow. If you do not become a positive influence, they might grow up to negatively impact others, including your own children.

Provide for underprivileged children. Matthew 18:6 (KJV) states, “But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.” Children are innocent; make them happy and do not harm them. By providing for less privileged children, you bring joy to their lives, and God will reward you richly for such acts.

Do not abuse or mistreat other people’s children. Such actions can lead to lasting effects of offense, bitterness, and trauma, which may then be passed on to other children. The children we see today will grow up to become the leaders of tomorrow. The quality of leadership we hope for depends on how we nurture them now. A great society is built on raising children without hurtful experiences. Nation-building includes godly child-rearing. Treat other people’s children as you would your own. Every child is your child, and you should care for them as such. Contact us for more information on how you can be involved in our project to support underprivileged children. God bless you.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

The love of God is poured into my heart by the Holy Spirit. I love every child as my own and treat them with kindness. I will be a positive influence and teach them the ways of God. I will care for, protect, and provide for them in Jesus' name, Amen!

DON'T MISS GOD

Wednesday, January 22, 2025

“And of the children of Issachar, which were men that had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do; the heads of them were two hundred; and all their brethren were at their commandment.”

— 1 Chronicles 12:32 (KJV)

God never leaves us in the dark. A person who misses God's visitation is often careless and lacks wisdom. This is a call for spiritual sensitivity and alertness. Those who are spiritually alert prepare through the Holy Spirit for moments of divine visitation. Spiritually sensitive people can discern what God has in store for them at each stage of their lives. For example, believers who are spiritually alert understand that the rapture is imminent and prepare for it by living righteously and holy, so they are not caught off guard.

Elisha asked for a double portion of Elijah's spirit, and Elijah responded, “Thou hast asked a hard thing: nevertheless, if thou see me when I am taken from thee, it shall be so unto thee; but if not, it shall not be so” (2 Kings 2:10, KJV). Elisha had been spiritually sensitive and knew that Elijah was about to be taken to heaven. He was prepared and took the right actions by following his master closely.

In Matthew 25:1-13, the parable of the five foolish virgins carefully illustrates the gross consequences of insensitivity and unpreparedness. These virgins missed out and were called “foolish” because they were not ready. I pray that the Lord enlightens your spiritual senses, grants you grace, and strengthens you to take the right actions at the right time. May you not miss the timing of your divine visitation in Jesus' name. Amen!

PRAYER / DECLARATION

I am aglow in the Spirit. The wisdom of God is at work in me at all times. I know what to do, when to do it, and how to do it. I am strengthened in my spirit. My spirit is divinely illuminated in Jesus' name. Amen!

GOD WANTS YOU TO RENEW YOUR MIND

Thursday, January 23, 2025

“Don’t copy the behavior and customs of this world, but let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think. Then you will learn to know God’s will for you, which is good and pleasing and perfect.”

— Romans 12:2 (NLT)

From the opening verse, God wants you to renew your mind, which Apostle Paul describes as “changing the way you think.” Your thoughts shape who you are; therefore, it’s crucial to change the way you think. Romans 12:2 (NLT) says, “...but let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think....” God can only transform you into a new person when you change your thought patterns.

God doesn’t want you to see yourself as a failure, a disappointment, or worthless. Instead, think of yourself as God does. The way God views you is revealed in the scriptures, which serve as the guide for your life. You are a success, and you are worth the blood of Jesus. Your life is significant to God. You were made in His image and likeness to be an effective representative of God on earth. Begin to view and think of yourself in this manner.

Many people struggle with their thoughts. They often wrestle between viewing themselves based on their current circumstances or as God views them. This struggle can be eased by studying God’s word, which helps to align your thoughts with His perspective. As you immerse yourself in scripture, it changes your thought patterns and helps you start seeing and thinking like God.

Philippians 4:8 advises: “Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable, if anything is excellent or praiseworthy, think about such things.” Let wholesome thoughts fill your heart. Focus on what is true, noble, pure, and lovely.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

EVALUATE YOURSELF
—————

Friday, January 24, 2025

*“Instead, let us test and examine our ways.
Let us turn back to the Lord.”
— Lamentations 3:40 (NLT)

Self-evaluation is the process of reflecting on one's strengths and areas that need improvement. Because of the teachings in 2 Corinthians 12 and Joel 3:10, I prefer not to use the word "weaknesses," but rather refer to them as "delicate" or "not too strong areas." Self-evaluation gives you the chance to critique your behavior and performance constructively. Doing this helps you better understand your own actions and identify areas that require growth.

Psalms 119:59 (NLT) says, “I pondered the direction of my life, and I turned to follow your laws.” Take time periodically to reflect on the direction of your life. Examine your efforts and results. Identify what affects you positively or negatively. Determine which factors will help you become a better person and draw you closer to your goals and to the version of yourself that God desires. It's time to discard what slows you down and replace it with things that will bring you closer to your dreams.

Psalms 139:23-24 (ERV) says, “God, examine me and know my mind. Test me and know all my worries. Make sure that I am not going the wrong way. Lead me on the path that has always been right.” As we enter a new year, it is important to evaluate yourself. Reflect on your spiritual life, finances, business, career, academics, and relationships. These areas are crucial, and you should make plans to improve in each one. The benefits of self-evaluation are numerous.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Dear Father, thank you for your word that has brought light into my heart. Search my heart and cleanse me of thoughts and desires that are not of you. I will always reflect on your word. As I evaluate myself, I will make decisions that lead to excellence and righteousness.

USE YOUR TIME WISELY

Saturday, January 25, 2025

“So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.”
— Psalm 90:12 (KJV)

When the Bible speaks of restoration in Joel 2:25 (KJV), which says, “And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpillar, and the palmerworm, my great army which I sent among you,” it focuses on the restoration of time. Years, months, weeks, days, hours, and seconds are all measurements of time. God’s promise is about restoring lost time, and after that comes prosperity and abundance (Joel 2:26, KJV). As you begin to redeem your time, God will cause you to walk in prosperity and abundance. Do not wander aimlessly.

Don’t waste your time on things that are irrelevant or fail to elevate you. Psalm 119:60 (ERV) says, “Without wasting any time, I hurried back to obey your commands.” We will give an account to God concerning how we spent our time on earth. When you appear before God, He will ask if you accomplished what He sent you to do within the time He allocated for you. John 9:4 (KJV) says, “I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.” Begin to take seriously all that God has called you to do, because the clock is ticking fast.

The difference between life and death is time. Those who have passed away often wished they had more time. Similarly, the difference between seed time and harvest is time. Knowing the right time to plant and the right time to harvest is essential, as there is a time for everything. An individual with a good time management plan will be successful because they have no room for time wastage. As Solomon wisely said in Proverbs 21:5 (NLT), “Good planning and hard work lead to prosperity, but hasty shortcuts lead to poverty.” Time is a precious resource, so manage it wisely.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Dear Lord, teach me to number my days and accomplish all that You have designed for me. I use my time wisely, doing the right things at the right time and achieving the right results. Lord, restore all my wasted years and efforts, in Jesus' name, Amen.

WE ARE ABLE MINISTERS

Sunday, January 26, 2025

"Who also hath made us able ministers of the New Testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life." — 2 Corinthians 3:6 (KJV)

A new creation in Christ has numerous benefits. The opening scripture says, "He has made us able ministers." We are not in need of abilities; He has already empowered us. This means we have been strengthened, equipped, and thoroughly furnished with all the resources we need to be competent and efficient in executing God's plans.

Apostle Paul was conscious of the fact that God had made him an able minister. No wonder he said in Philippians 4:13 (KJV), "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me." Like Paul, be aware of God's abilities at work in you. Being conscious of God's blessings brings them into reality.

You are not in need of external help, strength, or support. Your Helper, Strengtheners, and Supporter lives in you. The Holy Spirit is your ever-present help in times of need (Psalm 46:1). Take advantage of His presence within you. He is not far away, but resides in you, ready to be stirred up so He can manifest and show up for you.

It's vital to know how to stir up the Holy Spirit within you. Samson knew how to tap into divine strength whenever he was confronted by an enemy. As believers, praying in the Spirit is one of the easiest ways to stir up the Spirit of God in us. 2 Timothy 1:6 (KJV) says, "Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands." Pray in the Spirit and put Him to work.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Dear Heavenly Father, I praise Your name for Your great power at work in me. Thank You for making me an able minister of the New Covenant. I will never be helpless because You are always strengthening me. Thank You for being my sufficiency and competence. In Jesus' name, Amen!

YOU ARE FULL OF ABILITIES

Monday, January 27, 2025

*"I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me."
— Philippians 4:13 (KJV)

When you received the Holy Spirit, one of the gifts He brought into your life is divine strength. This means that the strength of God is now at work in you, enabling you to do all things. With this strength, there is no such thing as impossibility when you approach any task because of God's power within you.

When you become aware of this truth, your response to any assignment will be, "Consider it done!" The strength of God in you makes you bold and courageous in the face of challenges. It empowers you to speak with confidence like Joshua and Caleb, who said, "For they are bread for us" (Numbers 14:9). These men remained unshaken even when they saw the giants in Canaan. Similarly, being aware of God's strength in you will make you audacious like David when he confronted Goliath (1 Samuel 17:46).

You are not alone; the Almighty God lives in you. If God could empower Joshua, Caleb, and David, He can do even more with you. Declare to yourself: "I have divine strength. I am full of abilities. I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me."

Speak to the challenges and obstacles before you today, and they will crumble, because you are full of God's abilities!

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Thank you, Lord, for filling me with Your Spirit. I am full of strength, might, and abilities. There is no impossibility with me because my ability and strength come from You. I declare that every challenge troubling me falls flat right now, in Jesus' name, Amen!

TRUE WORSHIP

Tuesday, January 28, 2025

“God is a spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.”
- John 4:24 KJV

T rue worship is a reverent devotion and allegiance to God in spirit and in truth. There are different kinds of worship, but what makes it true worship is that it is performed in spirit and truth.

Firstly, we need to understand that God is a spirit, and He lives in the spiritual realm, not the physical realm. To offer acceptable worship to God, it must come from your spirit. Worship is a sacrifice to God, and it must be a spiritual act, not a carnal one. In this context, "carnal" refers to something sensual or fleshly. In Genesis 4:3-6, we see that God rejected Cain's offering. They must have brought their offerings because God had revealed to them the importance of a sacrifice. The simple reason Cain's offering was rejected is that he didn't follow the requirements of acceptable worship, which must be done in spirit and truth. If Cain had truly known the truth and understood the sovereignty of God, he would have given his best. Cain's carnality led to his rejected sacrifice, and his jealousy, which caused him to kill his brother, further reveals his lack of spiritual understanding. Just because worship songs and devotion appeal to your senses does not mean they are acceptable to God.

Secondly, true worship must be rendered in truth. God is truth (John 17:17), and true worship must align with God's Word. It must come from a sincere heart, from a contrite spirit. Psalms 51:17 (KJV) says, “The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.” True worship must also be offered without anger and in faith (1 Timothy 2:8).

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Dear Lord, thank You for Your grace in allowing me to be among the living who praise Your name. I will exalt You and worship Your majesty in the beauty of holiness. I will worship You with lifted hands and offer the sacrifice of my lips. My mouth will sing praises to Your name, and my whole being will worship You. Amen!

EXERCISE SELF-CONTROL

Wednesday, January 29, 2025

“And don’t sin by letting anger control you. Don’t let the sun go down while you are still angry, for anger gives a foothold to the devil.”
– Ephesians 4:25-27 NLT

In his epistle, Apostle Paul warns God’s people about the consequences of anger. “Don’t sin by letting anger control you” – this means that failing to exercise self-control is a sin against God. Self-control is the ability to manage your emotions, impulses, and behaviors. It enables you to think through and evaluate your actions rather than reacting impulsively.

Self-control is a commendable virtue. It is part of the inner beauty that Peter refers to in 1 Peter 3:4 (NLT): “You should clothe yourselves instead with the beauty that comes from within, the unfading beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is so precious to God.” True beauty is the beauty within, and it doesn’t fade. Are you slow to anger? Do you exercise self-control when situations push you to the edge?

At times, people say, “I have reached my self-control elastic limit, so I had to explode.” As a believer filled with the Spirit, God has given you the ability to stay calm under pressure. You should not “explode” because you are not explosive.

Explosions cause harm and are dangerous. This implies that losing control often leads to harmful consequences. Let your actions and responses bring glory to God and reflect His image (Matthew 5:16).

PRAYER / DECLARATION

I am a new person in Christ; the old nature of anger, offense, and unforgiveness is gone. Through the Spirit of God, I subdue fleshly reactions and control my emotions. Anger has no dominion over me, in Jesus' name. Amen!

AS HE IS, SO ARE YOU IN THE WORLD

Thursday, January 30, 2025

“By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the Day of Judgment, because as he is, so also are we in this world.” – 1 John 4:17 ESV

Genesis 1:26 says, “Then God said, ‘Let us make man in our image, after our likeness.’” He gave man dominion over all things. God created animals after their own kind (Genesis 1:24). Cattle were created after cattle, birds after birds, and so on. The implication is that animals were made in the image and likeness of their kind. But God created you in His own image and likeness.

You are a unique being, specially crafted by God to be like Him. He gave you His Spirit so you can function like Him. He wants you to represent Him here on earth. Take action and respond to situations the way He would respond because His Spirit is in you.

What would Jesus do if He were here? Jesus wouldn't allow sickness to ravage His body. Whenever He showed up, He exercised dominion over every situation around Him – over the wind, the land, the water, sickness, and even death. From the opening scripture, “As He is, so are you in this world.” Never allow sickness to afflict you or those around you. Use the name of Jesus to take control over your finances, your city, and everything around you. In doing so, you are representing Him well.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Thank you, Lord, for making me in your image and likeness. I exercise dominion over the situations around me. I represent the fullness of your kingdom here on earth, in Jesus’ name. Amen!

BE AT PEACE WITH EVERYBODY

Friday, January 31, 2025

"Do all that you can to live in peace with everyone." – Romans 12:18 NLT

Be a person of peace. Let others know you for your peaceful nature and strive to live in harmony with everyone. Some people enjoy disputes and arguments; they feel compelled to always express their opinions or disagreements. But this is not always necessary. Practice discipline by choosing to overlook offenses and focus your energy on more meaningful pursuits.

Romans 12:18 (NLT) reminds us: "Do all that you can to live in peace with everyone." You have a responsibility to ensure that peace prevails, even if others refuse to comply. Strive to maintain peace as much as possible. When you encounter conflicting parties, make efforts to reconcile them because Matthew 5:9 says, "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God."

2 Timothy 2:24 (ISV) instructs, "A servant of the Lord must not argue. Instead, he must be kind to everyone, teachable, and willing to endure wrong." Avoid arguments and calmly express your thoughts and opinions. This is essential for righteous living, and by doing so, you exemplify the qualities of a true believer (Romans 12:9-21). I pray for you today, may the Lord fill your heart with His Spirit, guide you to make wise decisions in all areas of your life, and help you to live in peace with everyone, in Jesus' name. Amen!

PRAYER / DECLARATION

The peace of God fills my heart always. I live in peace with everyone. I avoid arguments and conflicts, and I act wisely with all people and in all situations.

HAVE YOU EVER WONDERED WHAT IT MEANS TO BE SAVED?
ARE YOU READY FOR A RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD AND NOT JUST RELIGION?

Many people think that having a relationship with GOD is about joining a religion or a church denomination. The simple truth is that it's all about a relationship with GOD, our Maker. It's about giving your heart and life to JESUS CHRIST, the Son of God, who died for your sins and the sins of the whole world so that you don't have to spend eternity separated from GOD.

Maybe you've felt unworthy of salvation because of things you've done in the past. Perhaps you've believed that your good works or simply being a "good" person would save you. Or maybe you thought you were saved just because you were baptized or prayed a prayer, without experiencing a real change of heart.

The good news is that JESUS is calling you right now to trust and believe in HIM. Trust that HE has done all the work and paid the price for your sins. JESUS died, was buried, and rose from the dead because He took the penalty for your sins upon Himself. He died so that you could have eternal life. GOD simply asks you to believe in JESUS CHRIST and receive HIS free gift of salvation so you can live an abundant life with GOD both here on earth and for all eternity. I invite you now to accept JESUS CHRIST into your heart by saying this prayer:

PRAYER OF SALVATION

O Lord God, I believe with all my heart in Jesus Christ, the Son of the living God. I believe He died for me, You raised Him from the dead, and He is alive today. I confess with my mouth that Jesus Christ is LORD. From this moment, I accept JESUS CHRIST into my heart as my personal LORD and SAVIOR. I declare that I am saved. LORD, take full control of my life, fill me with The HOLY SPIRIT, and help me to serve You, live for You, and glorify You now and forever. Amen!
