

*Awake Daily Devotional
February, Edition*

A | AWAKE
DAILY DEVOTIONAL

Awakening you to God's purpose and essence for your life...

FEBRUARY
2026

978 978 768 893 9

www.flcusa.org

February, 2026

Awakening you to God's Purpose
and Essence for your Life

Chuks Akuma

Copyright © 2025 by Chuks Akuma

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced in whole or in part, or transmitted in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording or otherwise without the prior permission of the publisher and the author, except in the case of brief quotations embodied in critical articles, academic and non-academic essays and reviews.

ISBN: 978-978-768-893-9

Published by Global Pen Publishers
Plot 1, Olawaiye Road, Anifowose, Ikeja, Lagos, Nigeria
+(234)-913-867-5068
+(234)-813-022-8509
publish@globalpconsulting.com.ng www.globalpconsulting.com.ng

Cover design and layout:
Global Pen Publishers

www.flcusa.org

All correspondence should be addressed to awakedaily@flcusa.org

“.... Morning by morning he awakens me and opens my understanding to his will. The Sovereign Lord has spoken to me, and I have listened...”

- Isaiah 50:4-5 (NLT)

INTRODUCTION

This unique devotional is birthed by the inspiration of the Spirit of God, with the aim of awakening you to God's purposes and realities for your life. Awake Daily Devotional will encourage you and help establish a Bible study routine, making it easier to remain consistent in studying God's Word. It will enhance your spiritual growth, build your faith, deepen your understanding of Scripture, and enrich your Christian living.

Awake Daily Devotional is a monthly publication featuring articles for each day of the month. As you read through its pages, you will experience the rich presence of God and the refreshment of His Word, helping you to develop intimacy with God and an enduring walk with him. God bless you!

FEATURING:

An uplifting devotional for each day - In order to get the most from this devotional, don't just speed-read each article. Interact with it by carefully reading and meditating on the article for each day. Personalize each content.

Inspiring Bible quotations - There are multiple scriptures for you to have a deep dive and further study of each day's article.
Daily prayer / Declaration - There are prayers / declarations for each day's article. Boldly say the prayers/ declarations out loud to yourself.

Daily Bible reading plan - Diligently follow the daily bible reading plan for each article to help you go through the entire bible from page to page within a year.

ACRONYMS OF BIBLE TRANSLATIONS IN USE:

The Amplified Bible - AMP
The Amplified Classic Bible - AMPC
American Standard Version - ASV
Contemporary English Version - CEV
Easy-To- Read -Version - ERV
Good News Bible - GNB
International Standard Version - ISV
The Message Translation - MSG
New Living Translation - NLT
New King James Version - NKJV
New American Standard Bible - NASB

New International Version - NIV
Revised Standard Version - RSV
The Living Bible - TLB
The Passion Translation - TPT
King James Version - KJV
God's Word Translation - GW

For prayers, testimonies and sponsorships, reach out to us.

Email: awakedaily@flcusa.org

Phone: +1 (463) 336-6108

Address: 2415 Director's Row, Indianapolis, IN 46241(SUITE H)

Prayer For You

As you read this devotional, I pray you experience the incredible hope and joy that come from God. May you walk in divine alignment, fulfill your purpose in Christ, and bear fruitful seeds for God's glory, in Jesus' name. Amen!

3  8

AN OVERCOMER BY DEFAULT

Sunday, February 1, 2026

“For whatever is born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world, our faith.” — 1 John 5:4 (NKJV)

In Christ, overcoming is not a special status reserved for a few mature believers; it is the default position of everyone born of God. The moment you received Christ, you were placed into His victory. Jesus did not merely survive the world's system; He conquered it. Because you are united with Him, His triumph became your inheritance. You do not overcome by striving harder; you overcome because of who you belong to.

The Scripture reminds us that our confidence rests in Christ's finished work. Jesus declared, “In the world, you will have tribulation; but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world” (John 16:33 NKJV). Notice that He spoke of His victory as already accomplished. Life's pressures, opposition, and trials are real, but they are not ultimate. They exist in a realm already defeated by Christ, and therefore they cannot define your outcome.

Being an overcomer by default also means that your new nature is equipped for victory. Paul writes, “Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us” (Romans 8:37 NKJV). “More than conquerors” means victory with advantage, winning without depletion. Even when challenges arise, God's love and power ensure that what was meant to defeat you will ultimately serve God's purpose in you.

This truth reshapes how we respond to adversity. We do not approach problems as victims seeking rescue, but as sons and daughters enforcing an already won victory. Faith becomes our lens. Instead of asking, “Will I make it?” we declare, “I have already overcome through Christ.” This mindset fuels perseverance, hope, and spiritual authority.

Living as an overcomer by default requires daily alignment with truth. As we renew our minds with God's Word, our responses begin to match our identity. Fear gives way to faith. Victory is not something we chase; it is something we walk out. In Christ, overcoming is not the exception; it is the normal Christian life.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Father, I thank You that I am born of God and therefore an overcomer by default. I declare that through Christ, I walk in victory over sin, fear, and the world's systems. My faith is alive, my confidence is strong, and my life reflects Your triumph. In Jesus' name, Amen.

FURTHER STUDIES	DAILY BIBLE READING PLAN
Revelation 12:11 NKJV; 2 Corinthians 2:14; Ephesians 1:19–21	Ex 20-21

3 BE LIBERAL

Monday, February 2, 2026

“Give freely and become more wealthy; be stingy and lose everything. The generous will prosper; those who refresh others will themselves be refreshed.”

— Proverbs 11:24–25 (NLT)

To be liberal is to give generously. In God's kingdom, generosity is not merely an act of kindness; it is a spiritual principle that governs increase. God's economy does not function by hoarding or excessive caution. While wisdom and stewardship matter, Scripture makes it clear that abundance is purely connected to a generous heart, and not to withholding.

Proverbs 11 reveals a powerful contrast. One person releases freely and experiences increase, while another holds back and ends up lacking. This shows that true prosperity flows through open hands. God invites you to reflect His nature through generosity and to trust Him as the One who faithfully supplies every need.

In the New Testament, Jesus taught this same principle, showing that giving activates a divine cycle of return. What is released in faith in God's Word and this principle does not disappear; it returns multiplied and overflowing. In the kingdom of God, giving is never subtraction. It is seed. Every seed sown carries the potential for increase and harvest.

The word stingy speaks of withholding. It describes the tendency to restrain generosity while waiting for perfect conditions. Some pause to analyze their resources, monitor their accounts, or calculate future outcomes before deciding to give. While this approach seems logical, it is not how faith operates. Faith responds to God's Word, not to visible conditions.

God wants you to trust Him completely. Proverbs 3:5 urges us to trust in the Lord with all our heart rather than rely on human reasoning. Generosity requires confidence that God remains your source, regardless of what you see. Obedience to His Word always leads to life, provision, and peace. The Apostle Paul reinforces this truth by explaining that the measure of the harvest is connected to the measure of the seed sown (2 Corinthians 9:6). Generous sowing produces generous results. This principle never fails because it is established by God Himself.

Choose to give generously. Become a vessel through which God blesses others, and you will always experience continual refreshment, increase, and divine supply in your own life.

PRAYER/DECLARATION

Father, thank You for teaching me the principle of increase through Your Word. I choose generosity as a lifestyle. As I give freely, I walk in increase, supply, and continual refreshment. My life reflects Your generous nature. In Jesus' name, Amen.

FURTHER STUDIES	DAILY BIBLE READING PLAN
Luke 6:38 NIV; 2 Corinthians 9:6–8; Proverbs 3:5–6	Ex 22-23; Mat 21

3  8

BEARING FRUITS OF LIFE

Tuesday, February 3, 2026

“For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light.”

— Ephesians 5:8 (NIV)

Before you were saved, darkness described your state. Now, light defines your nature. This is a spiritual reality. You do not merely reflect light; you are light in the Lord. This kind of light is not something you activate occasionally. It is who you are now, and your life is required to reflect this reality consistently.

Because you are light, your life produces fruits that correspond with light. Ephesians 5:9–10 (NIV) makes this clear, “For the fruit of the light consists in all goodness, righteousness and truth.” These fruits are not forced behaviors. They are the natural expression of your new life in Christ. Where light is present, darkness cannot dominate.

In Ephesians, the Apostle Paul contrasts the works of darkness with the fruit of the light. Darkness thrives in secrecy, confusion, and corruption, but light reveals, orders, and gives life. This truth traces back to Genesis 1:3, where God spoke light into existence, bringing form and beauty out of chaos. Jesus later declared, “I am the light of the world” in John 8:12, revealing that following Him results in spiritual illumination and life. When you received Christ, you did not merely receive illumination and life; you became an illumination and a life giver.

The word “consists” as used in Ephesians 5:9 is very important. It shows that goodness, righteousness, and truth are not optional traits or occasional outcomes. They basically form the substance of genuine Christian living. These qualities are the visible proof that Christ's light is active in you. As Jesus taught, identity is revealed by fruit, not claims.

Your light is meant to be seen and experienced by others. Let it be evident in your character, choices, and interactions. As you walk consciously as a child of light, your life naturally aligns with what pleases the Lord and influences your world for good. Shine on, bear fruit without strain, and live as who you truly are: light in the Lord.

PRAYER/DECLARATION

Father, I thank You for making me a light. I affirm that I am light in the Lord. I live as a child of light, bearing fruits of goodness, righteousness, and truth. Darkness has no hold on me. I shine to Your glory, in Jesus' name, Amen.

FURTHER STUDIES	DAILY BIBLE READING PLAN
Matthew 5:14–16; John 8:12; Ephesians 5:9–11	Ex 24-26

3  8

CARRIER OF HIS PRESENCE

Wednesday, February 4, 2026

“Do you not know that you are the temple of God and that the Spirit of God dwells in you?”
— 1 Corinthians 3:16 (NKJV)

You are a carrier of God's presence. You live with God in you, allowing His presence to naturally flow through your everyday life. Being a carrier of God's presence is not about being “holy enough.” When the Spirit of God lives in you, you carry His love, peace, and guidance wherever you go, even in the small and ordinary moments. Your smile, your words, and your actions all become channels through which people can experience God, even if they do not realize it.

Jesus promised us a Helper who would remain with us forever: “And I will pray the Father, and He will give you another Helper, that He may abide with you forever” (John 14:16 NKJV). This Helper, the Holy Spirit, does not remain passive within us. He moves, guides, comforts, and empowers us daily.

Carrying God's presence requires awareness. Paul said, “Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption” (Ephesians 4:30 NKJV). This reminds us that our words, attitudes, and actions matter. The more we yield to Him, the more naturally His love and power flow through us. People notice when God's presence is real in someone.

They sense peace, hope, and encouragement simply by being around them.

This is both a privilege and a responsibility. Jesus said, “You are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hidden” (Matthew 5:14 NKJV). Wherever you go, at work, at home, in school, or even online, you have the opportunity to shine His light. You do not need to do something dramatic to make an impact. Simple acts of love and kindness can carry God's presence powerfully.

The more time you spend with Him, the more naturally His presence flows through you. When this happens, your life becomes a place where others can encounter God, often without even realizing it. Glory to God.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Thank You, Lord, for Your precious Holy Spirit who lives in me. I carry Your presence wherever I go. I affirm that everything about my existence reflects You, bringing hope, peace, and love to everyone around me. In Jesus' name, Amen.

FURTHER STUDIES	DAILY BIBLE READING PLAN
2 Corinthians 6:16; Acts 1:8; Romans 8:11	Ex 27-28; Mat 22

DESIGNED TO REIGN

Thursday, February 5, 2026

“...much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.”—Romans 5:17 (KJV)

Reigning is the language of kings. It speaks of authority, dominion, and influence. You were not designed to struggle through life helplessly; you were designed to reign. This ability to reign is anchored in the vicarious work of Christ. You are not striving to earn authority; you are standing on His finished work. Through Him, grace and righteousness have been lavishly supplied, empowering you to rule in life.

The reign described in Romans 5:17 is not postponed to the future; it is a present reality. Revelation 5:10 declares, “And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.” While there is a future physical reign with Christ, God's intention is that you exercise kingdom authority here and now. You are a king and a priest, called to represent God and to enforce His will on the earth.

Reigning in life means living above circumstances, not under them. Sin, sickness, defeat, fear, and failure were never meant to dominate you. Through Christ, you have received authority to rule over these things. God did not create you to be trapped by pain, oppression, or limitation. His confidence in you is rooted in what He has deposited within you: His life, His righteousness, and His power.

You reign by revealing God's glory through your life and by manifesting the dominion mandate He gave from the beginning. Your words, actions, and choices are expressions of your kingly authority. When challenges arise, you respond from a position of victory, not desperation. You enforce what Christ has already accomplished.

God takes pleasure in seeing His sons and daughters walk in authority. Make Him proud by exercising your dominion over every negative condition. Refuse to be passive. Stand firm in grace, conscious of your righteousness, and deliberate in your authority. As you reign in life, God is glorified, and His kingdom is made visible through you.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Father, I thank You for the abundance of grace and the gift of righteousness I have received through Jesus Christ. I reign in life, exercising authority over sin, sickness, fear, and failure. I walk in dominion, revealing Your glory and enforcing Your will on the earth. In Jesus' name, Amen.

FURTHER STUDIES	DAILY BIBLE READING PLAN
Revelation 5:10 KJV; Genesis 1:26–28 KJV; Romans 8:37 KJV	Ex 29; Mat 23

3  8

DEVELOP SPIRITUAL SENSITIVITY

Friday, February 6, 2026

*“Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.”— Proverbs 3:5 (KJV)

Develop your spiritual sensitivity. Physical sensitivity is important, but relying primarily on your senses can limit your faith because you begin to trust what you see, hear, or feel more than what the Spirit reveals. Leaning on your own understanding is limited to what the senses can perceive, but being spiritually sensitive allows you to discern God's guidance beyond natural perception. As detailed in Proverbs 3:5 (KJV), “Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.”

Being carnally minded brings limitation. “For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace” (Romans 8:6 KJV). A life dominated by the senses struggles to walk in faith, faces uncertainty in decision-making, and experiences spiritual stagnation. Spiritual sensitivity, however, brings life, peace, and clarity. It positions you to respond accurately to God's guidance.

Ephesians 5:18 (KJV) Says, “And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit.” Being filled with the Spirit sharpens your sensitivity to God's voice, helping you recognize His promptings in your thoughts, emotions, and circumstances. Spiritual sensitivity is cultivated intentionally through consistent spiritual practices that attune your heart and mind to God.

You can develop spiritual sensitivity by engaging in prayer and meditation on God's Word, spending time daily listening to God, and seeking His guidance. Reading and studying the Word allows God's truths to renew your mind and attune your spirit. Psalms 119:105 (KJV) says, "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path." Obedience to those small promptings from the Spirit strengthens trust and increases awareness, while fasting subjects your body to respond to the Holy Spirit rather than your natural desires. Quiet reflection and removing distractions also help you cultivate stillness, enabling you to be more sensitive and hear God more clearly.

As your spiritual sensitivity grows, your choices, relationships, and outward responses begins to reflect the life of God. It's vital to know that Spiritual sensitivity is not a gift; it is developed intentionally as you yield yourself to God's perfect will.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Father, I thank You for the gift of Your Spirit within me. I choose to develop spiritual sensitivity and hear Your voice clearly. I reject carnal thinking and trust in Your guidance. I'm Strengthened to respond promptly to Your promptings, and let my life reflect life, peace, and Your perfect will. In Jesus' name, amen!

FURTHER STUDIES	DAILY BIBLE READING PLAN
John 16:13 (KJV); Galatians 5:16 (KJV); 1 Corinthians 2:14 (KJV)	Ex 30-31

3  8

DEVELOP STRONG DESIRES FOR THE WORD

Saturday, February 7, 2026

“As newborn babies, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby.”

—1 Peter 2:2 (KJV)

Spiritual growth begins with desire. Just as a newborn instinctively craves milk, you are called to cultivate a deep appetite for God's Word. Peter's instruction is not a suggestion; it is a command. He calls you to desire; to crave, long for, and hunger after the Word. This desire is deliberate and intentional, not casual or occasional.

The Word of God is described as pure spiritual milk. “Pure” means uncontaminated, free from worldly mixtures, human opinions, or false doctrine. God's Word is complete, clean, and trustworthy. “Milk” emphasizes nourishment. While milk is associated with infancy, it is essential at every stage of life. In the same way, the Word remains your source of life, strength, and growth no matter how mature you become.

Appetite grows by exposure. The more you feed on the Word, the stronger your hunger becomes. On the other hand, neglect dulls desire. When the Word is absent, spiritual sensitivity weakens. You cannot grow healthy without consistent intake. Growth does not happen by determination alone; God has ordained a means, and that means is His Word.

Just as natural milk provides the basic nutrients that support development and immunity, Scripture supplies what your spirit needs to thrive. God's Word brings truth that sanctifies: “Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth” (John 17:17). It also provides strength for lasting growth. In this regard, Acts 20:32 establishes: “And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up.” The Word cleanses, builds, corrects, and establishes you.

When the Word of God becomes your daily nourishment, growth becomes inevitable. Your thinking is renewed, your faith is strengthened, and your life begins to align with God's will. Remove the Word, and growth stops. Restore the Word, and life flows again. Make up your mind to develop a strong desire for God's Word. Create time for it. Meditate on it. Feed on it daily. As you do, you will grow steadily, mature spiritually, and walk confidently in all God has prepared for you.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Dear Lord, stir up in my heart a strong hunger for Your Word. To desire it daily, feed on it consistently, and grow by it continually. Your Word nourishes me, strengthens me, and builds me into all You have designed me to be. I grow steadily and fruitfully by Your truth. In Jesus' name, Amen.

FURTHER STUDIES	DAILY BIBLE READING PLAN
Psalm 119:103 KJV; Joshua 1:8 KJV; Colossians 3:16 KJV	Ex 32-33; Mat 24

DIVINE METAMORPHOSIS

Sunday, February 8, 2026

“But we all, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as by the Spirit of the Lord.” — 2 Corinthians 3:18 (NKJV)

Transformation, or metamorphosis describes the ongoing, Spirit-powered change in every believer. From the moment we receive Christ, God's purpose for our lives is to shape us into the image of His Son. Romans 8:29, NKJV says, “For whom He foreknew, He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son”. The new self, renewed in knowledge after the image of its Creator, grows continually, guided by the Spirit (Colossians 3:10). This work is certain because it is grounded in God's Word, not in how we feel each day.

The process never stands still. Proverbs 4:18, NKJV says, “The path of the righteous is like the first light of dawn, shining brighter and brighter until the full light of day”. From the moment of first faith to our final breath, God's glory in us escalates, radiating with increasing brilliance. Philippians 1:6 reassures us that the Lord will complete the work He has begun, and nothing can halt His purpose.

Because Christ has removed the veil, we enjoy open, personal fellowship with God. No longer do we approach Him through intermediaries or shadowed understanding. With unveiled faces, gazing upon the Lord in His Word and in worship, we mirror His glory. This reflection is not static; it is a steady, Spirit-driven metamorphosis that transforms our hearts, minds, and lives into Christlikeness.

The brightness of our spiritual reflection intensifies with every step of our fellowship with the Lord. The glory we mirror is sourced entirely in the Spirit, and the transformation is assured. God's ultimate purpose (to display His glory fully in and through His people) is unfolding, moment by moment. Every believer participates in this divine metamorphosis, a life-long journey of renewal, radiance, and triumph in the Spirit. Hallelujah!

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Lord, I thank You for your Spirit that is transforming me daily. I behold Your glory, allowing Your Word to renew my mind, heart, and life. I am being shaped into the image of Your Son, growing brighter and stronger in Your likeness. I walk in Your power, manifesting Your glory in all I do. In Jesus' name, Amen.

FURTHER STUDIES	DAILY BIBLE READING PLAN
Romans 8:29 KJV; Colossians 3:10 KJV; Proverbs 4:18 KJV	Ex 34-35

3 8
ENDUED WITH MIRACLE-WORKING ABILITIES

Monday, February 9, 2026

“But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me ...”— Acts 1:8 (KJV)

Miracles are supernatural manifestations of God. They are events that surpass human understanding and abilities. The source of every miracle is God Himself, and the remarkable truth is that this God lives in you. He dwells within you not only to guide, comfort, and empower you but also to express His power through you.

When you encounter someone who is sick, oppressed, or in need, God desires to demonstrate His compassion and glory. Often, He chooses to do it through you. Through your obedience and faith, His miraculous power flows, touching lives, and bringing healing. You are not limited by human strength, for the divine enablement in you surpasses all natural limitations.

Acts 1:8 highlights this divine empowerment. The Greek word dunamis translated as “power” refers to miraculous ability and dynamic strength: the capacity to effect change. This means that when you step into situations of need, God's power in you can transform circumstances. Where sickness resides, healing can flow. Where oppression reigns, the enemy can be bound in the name of Jesus. You are God's instrument, equipped and trusted to perform miracles, for He has given you everything necessary to be effective.

Luke 10:19 KJV reinforces this authority: “Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you”. Through the Holy Spirit, you walk with supernatural boldness, overcoming spiritual opposition, and demonstrating God's glory.

The miracle-working abilities of God are resident in you. Yield to His Spirit, act in faith, and allow Him to perform His wonders through your life. Step boldly into every situation, knowing that God has equipped you with power, authority, and divine enablement to bring heaven's reality to earth.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Father, I thank You for your miracle-working power at work in me. I walk in Your authority, bringing healing, deliverance, and wherever I go. I am Your instrument, enabled by the Holy Spirit to manifest Your wonders and glorify Your name. In Jesus' name, Amen.

FURTHER STUDIES	DAILY BIBLE READING PLAN
Luke 10:19 NIV; Acts 1:8 NLT; Mark 16:17–18	Ex 36-37; Mat 25

3 ————— 8
ENLARGE YOUR HEART
—————

Tuesday, February 10, 2026

“Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations: spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes.” — Isaiah 54:2 (KJV)

There is something profound in the above scripture as seen in our opening. God is inviting you to enlarge your heart; to expand your capacity for faith, love, vision, and purpose. The Hebrew word for “enlarge” here is râbâh, meaning to make room, increase, or extend. Just as a tent must be widened to accommodate more, your heart must be stretched to hold more of God's blessings and purposes.

Enlarging your heart begins with expanding your faith. You cannot receive more from God than your heart is prepared to hold. When you trust Him beyond your current understanding and step into action, your heart grows. Your faith stretches your vision, opens doors for divine possibilities, and makes room for God to move in ways you have never imagined.

God also needs you to increase your capacity to love. A heart that is enlarged can forgive more freely, and embrace others unconditionally. The Bible says, “Above all things have fervent charity among yourselves” (1 Peter 4:8). Charity, love, and compassion flow from a heart that has been stretched and molded by God's Spirit.

Spiritual growth is another fruit of an enlarged heart. As your heart stretches, your understanding deepens. You begin to see life from God's perspective, think His thoughts, and act according to His purpose. You are no longer constrained by fear, limitation, or the opinions of others. God equips you with wisdom, discernment, and courage to navigate life with confidence.

Biblical examples abound. Abraham's heart was enlarged to believe for Isaac in his old age (Genesis 17:5). David's heart was enlarged to shepherd a nation (2 Samuel 5:10). Even the early church experienced enlargement as they welcomed thousands into the kingdom (Acts 6:7). In every case, God stretched their hearts to match His plans.

Enlarge your heart. Pray for God to expand your vision, stretch your faith, increase your love, and prepare you for the next level of His plan. Don't resist the stretching; embrace it. As your heart grows, your life will grow, and God's purposes will find room to manifest fully.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Heavenly Father, Your Spirit enlarges my heart, stretches my capacity to walk in Your blessings, and to extend blessings to others. I declare my eyes are opened to see Your purposes; my vision is enlarged; and I walk boldly in the fullness of Your plans for me In Jesus' name, Amen.

FURTHER STUDIES	DAILY BIBLE READING PLAN
Isaiah 54:2 KJV; 2 Samuel 5:10 KJV; Acts 6:7 KJV	Ex 38-39

3  8

FILLED WITH DIVINE POWER

Wednesday, February 11, 2026

“But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses...” — Acts 1:8 (GNT)

The Bible says in 2 Timothy 1:7 (GNT): “For the Spirit that God has given us does not make us timid; instead, His Spirit fills us with power, love, and self-control”. The Spirit imparted to us by God is not one that produces fear, weakness, or hesitation. He is the Spirit of power. This power is divine enablement: the supernatural ability of God made active within the believer. It is not limited to physical strength or emotional confidence; it is spiritual authority and capacity to function effectively in God's purpose.

The Christian life was designed to be lived from a position of power. God never intended His children to struggle through life relying on human ability. Through the Holy Spirit, divine power is deposited within our human spirit, enabling us to live boldly. This power works in harmony with love and self-control, producing a balanced and disciplined life.

When you received the baptism of the Holy Spirit, you were endued with this power. This was not a symbolic experience but a real impartation of divine ability. Acts 1:8 reveals that the coming of the Holy Spirit resulted to empowerment for effective witness. The Spirit energizes you from within, causing your words to carry the same power of God and your actions to produce results.

This power is not reserved for special moments; it is present now. It strengthens the inner man, eliminates fear, and produces confidence rooted in God's ability rather than human limitation. As you consciously yield to the Holy Spirit, His power finds expression through your words, decisions, and daily conduct. Living with this awareness transforms how you approach life, you can now face Challenges with confidence, The Holy Spirit within you is the guarantee of a powerful, effective, and victorious life.

PRAYER/DECLARATION

Dear Father, I thank You for the Holy Spirit who lives in me. I am filled with divine power, love, and soundness of mind. Fear has no place in my life. I function with spiritual authority and confidence, energized by the power of the Spirit within me. I speak, act, and live from this divine enablement, fulfilling Your purpose effectively, in Jesus' name. Amen.

FURTHER STUDIES	DAILY BIBLE READING PLAN
Luke 24:49; Romans 8:11; Ephesians 3:16	Ex 40; Lev 1

3 ————— 8

FIRM FOUNDATION IN CHRISTIAN LIFE

—————

Thursday, February 12, 2026

*“Train up a child in the way he should go:
and when he is old, he will not depart from it.”— Proverbs 22:6 (KJV)*

The Christian life is built, and not stumbled into. God's intention from the beginning has been the establishment of lives that are grounded and stable. And a firm foundation is essential in this process because everything that follows is shaped by what is first laid.

The word “foundation” means establishing a basic platform for Christian growth and development. In Proverbs 22:6, many have limited this instruction to child upbringing, but it goes beyond that. It also applies to the discipleship of believers. This is very crucial in the establishment of believers in their walk with God. It is not enough to say the prayer of salvation; God expects that new converts & believers are nurtured and given a good foundation for their Christian growth. Lack of this is the reason many who were once saved return to worldly values.

The phrase “train up a child” as used in our opening verse involves a deliberate and intentional process of teaching and guiding. In Bible days, education was the responsibility of the family, particularly the parents. The Hebrew word chanak also means to dedicate or initiate, suggesting a formal commitment to moral and spiritual development. This is why Deuteronomy 6:6–7, KJV says, “these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart: and thou shalt teach them diligently”. Parents here also imply those who brought others the message of salvation.

A new believer should be pointed “in the way he should go.” He/she should not go any way they like, because “there is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of destruction” (Proverbs 14:12, KJV). This speaks of direction and a defined path. It implies understanding the new believer's spiritual growth, gifts, and calling.

The phrase “And when he is old” speaks of long-term impact. In biblical understanding, age reflects maturity. What is sown early produces results later. Early training becomes strength in later seasons. Paul affirmed this when he wrote in 2 Timothy 3:15, KJV: “the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation”. This gives believers a firm foundation to thrive in their journey of faith, so they will not depart from it. It will reflect lasting adherence to what has been instilled and the enduring power of Godly instruction.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Father, I thank You for the foundation You are establishing in my life. I receive intentional training, sound instruction, and wise direction. I am established, and strengthened to continue in the way You have set for me. In Jesus' name, Amen.

FURTHER STUDIES	DAILY BIBLE READING PLAN
Deuteronomy 6:6–7; Proverbs 14:12; Galatians 6:7–8	Lev 2-4; Mat 26

3 FREE FROM SICKNESS

Friday, February 13, 2026

“Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?”—1 Corinthians 3:16 (KJV)

Your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit. GOD lives in you in the person of the Holy Spirit. The Lord was ministering to me some time ago; He gave me an instance of the house where the president of a nation lives. He asked me: can the president live in a house that has roof leakage, or a clogged bathroom? If such happens, such will be fixed or replaced. You are the house of God. He lives in you. He can't be comfortable living in a house that is faulty.

This fault implies sickness, diseases, and infirmity. What He does is fix the fault by healing your body or replacing whatever went bad in your body. Nothing is too small or too large for Him to restore. Every part of your body is important to Him because it is the dwelling place of His Spirit. He desires that you walk in health, vitality, and strength, fully free from the burdens of illness.

This truth is a life-changer. Come to that place where you become fully conscious that God lives in you and He ensures that everything in your body works perfectly. He quickens and invigorates your body. Romans 8:11 (KJV) says, “But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal body by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.”

Meditate on this divine reality. Speak it over your body. Declare in faith that every organ, every system, and every cell is operating in harmony and strength. Health is not just the absence of sickness; it is the fullness of God's life flowing in you. Confess it daily, knowing that your body responds to the Spirit of God who lives in you.

Faith-filled declarations over your body change your atmosphere. When you believe that God's presence heals, restores, and invigorates, your health aligns with His words. Every weakness is strengthened, every tiredness renewed, and every sickness rendered powerless. You are not merely surviving; you are thriving because the Spirit of God lives in you.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Father, I thank You that my body is Your temple. I declare that I am free from sickness, disease, and infirmity. Every part of my body works in perfect harmony, quickened and invigorated by Your Spirit. I receive complete restoration and health today. I walk in strength, vitality, and life, because You live in me. Amen.

FURTHER STUDIES	DAILY BIBLE READING PLAN
3 John 1:2 (KJV); Psalm 103:2–3 (KJV); Isaiah 53:5 (KJV)	Lev 5-6

— Proverbs 3:5 (KJV)

not come through. But God needs your complete trust.

Abraham is a clear example of this kind of trust. God instructed him to leave his home country without revealing the destination. Abraham followed God without hesitation, even when obstacles and delays arose. He did not question God's Words. The Bible says, “He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God” (Romans 4:20 (KJV)). His trust was steady, and God honored it.

God is still speaking today, through the scriptures and through His Spirit. What He has spoken to you is enough to stand on. Hold tightly to His Word, refuse doubt, and trust Him with your life. When your trust is settled, your heart remains at peace, and your faith stays strong, knowing that God will do exactly what He says.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Father, I know you love me. I choose to trust You with my life. Your Word is dependable and sure. I reject doubt and double-mindedness. I trust You completely, without reservation. I hold on to what You have spoken, and what you have written, and I rest in Your faithfulness. My life is secure in You in Jesus' name, Amen.

FURTHER STUDIES	DAILY BIBLE READING PLAN
Psalm 37:5; Isaiah 26:3–4 ESV; Jeremiah 17:7 NIV	Lev 7-8

3  8

GIVE NO PLACE TO THE DEVIL

Sunday, February 15, 2026

“...Nor give place to the devil.”
—Ephesians 4:27 (NKJV)

John 10:10 (NKJV) says, “The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly.”

This verse clearly reveals the intent behind every work of the adversary. His agenda has no good outcome, only loss and ruin. Life flourishes where his access is denied. Vigilance is therefore essential, because destruction often begins with tolerance rather than open resistance.

The enemy rarely advances in obvious ways. He moves gradually, taking advantage of small openings that appear insignificant at first. A thought left unchecked, an attitude excused, or a response driven by emotion can become an entry point. Space that is granted, even briefly, never remains limited. What is allowed to stay eventually seeks control.

Give the devil no room because if you give a room, he will eventually take over the entire house. It could be in your marriage, your career, your health or ministry. For instance, in your marriage, it could be the anger and irritation you have been having towards your spouse. That's the first step of the enemy creeping into your home. Not very long, you both will stop praying together; next is argument, abuse, separation, and even divorce. All of these will arise because you gave the devil a room: the permission into your home.

2 Timothy 2:26 (NKJV) says, “And that they may come to their senses and escape the snare of the devil, having been taken captive by him to do his will.” This passage highlights the importance of awareness and discernment. Not giving any place to the devil is maintained by recognizing early signs of entrapment. Sensitivity to the Holy Spirit enables quick detection; then, use the name of Jesus to resist and overturn every attempt to gain control.

Your Daily living calls for deliberate guarding of your heart, thoughts, and actions to the principles of God's Word. This keeps every door secured. When no room is granted, you will experience peace.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Father, I thank You for the authority You have given me in Christ. I declare that my heart, home, and assignments are protected. I refuse every form of compromise and deception. In the name of Jesus, I stand firm and exercise wisdom in all I do. My life remains secure, fruitful, and filled with peace. Amen.

FURTHER STUDIES	DAILY BIBLE READING PLAN
James 4:7 (NKJV); 1 Peter 5:8–9 (NKJV); Proverbs 4:23 (NKJV)	Lev 9-10; Mat 27

3 ————— 8

GOD IS AT WORK IN YOU

—————

Monday, February 16, 2026

*“For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of His good pleasure.” — Philippians 2:13 (KJV)

One of the greatest revelations a believer can have is this: God is at work in you. Notice that the Scripture does not say He works for you only, or around you; it says He works in you. His activity is internal, constant, and purposeful. As Philippians 2:13 KJV says, He works “both to will and to do of His good pleasure,” meaning, He shapes your desires and empowers your actions to fulfill His perfect will.

Have you ever paused to consider which GOD is working in you? It is the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, the God of supernatural provision, the God of Jacob, the God who transforms destinies. The God who was with Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John, guiding them to record His life and teachings. The God who parted the Red Sea, shut the mouths of lions, raised the dead, and created the universe by His Word. That same God is at work in you right now!

His work in you is not delayed. It is active, dynamic, and intentional. He is shaping your heart, aligning your will with His, strengthening your resolve, and preparing you for glorious testimonies. You are not alone, nor are you trying to fix life by your own strength. God Himself is working in you, enabling you to walk in His purposes.

What situation are you facing today? A financial challenge, a health concern, family pressure, emotional battles, delayed answers, or an uncertain future? God does not fold His hands watching. He is working in your heart, in your circumstances, in your steps, and in your favor. You are His workmanship (Ephesians 2:10), and He never abandons His work.

Because God is at work in you, the outcome is guaranteed. It will end in victory. Your part is to believe, surrender, and speak His Word (Hebrews 11:1). Boldly declare: God is working in me both to will and to do of His good pleasure. I am willing, empowered, and enabled to walk in His will. God is active in me, shaping my desires and strengthening my steps. I am His workmanship, and my story is of victory & triumph.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Father, thank You for You are working in me. Thank You for shaping my will, strengthening my heart, and guiding my steps. I trust Your work in my life, and I declare that every situation is turning for my good, and I live out the divine life to its fullest in Jesus' name, Amen.

FURTHER STUDIES	DAILY BIBLE READING PLAN
Philippians 2:13; Ephesians 3:20; Hebrews 13:21	Lev 11-12

3 ————— 8

JOY IN THE HOLY GHOST

—————

Tuesday, February 17, 2026

“You will show me the path of life; In Your presence is fullness of joy; At Your right hand are pleasures forevermore.”— Psalms 16:11 (NKJV)

Joy can be described as a deep, enduring sense of well-being and contentment that flows from knowing and trusting God. It is not tied to circumstances, wealth, or comfort; it is a supernatural gift produced by the Holy Spirit in the life of every believer. True joy comes from walking in God's presence and resting in His word.

The psalmist reminds us that in God's presence is complete joy, and at His right hand are pleasures that never end (Psalms 16:11). This joy is meant to flow freely in the life of every Spirit-filled believer. Being born again and filled with the Holy Spirit, you are called to manifest this fruit continually. Joy is evidence of salvation, a reflection of God's abiding presence, and a testimony of the Spirit's work within you.

Some people seek happiness in food, drink, or material comforts, but the joy of God is far greater and deeper. It does not rise and fall with circumstances. Whether life is going according to plan or seems uncertain, whether resources are plentiful or not, you can remain joyful because joy is a fruit that the Spirit produces within you. Let no challenge, situation, or person steal your joy.

The Holy Spirit is the source and sustainer of all Spirit-filled attributes, including joy. You can indeed choose to be joyous regardless of conditions. It is a deliberate decision to walk in the reality of what Jesus has already given you: the fullness of joy (John 15:11). As you submit completely to Him, your joy becomes unshakable, radiating strength, peace, fulfillment, and the presence of God to everyone around you.

Make up your mind completely to rejoice today. Refuse to allow circumstances to dictate your happiness. Let the joy of the Holy Spirit rise in your heart, overflow in your life, and shine through every situation. Remember, the joy of the Lord is your strength, and it is yours to walk in daily.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Father, I receive the fullness of joy You have placed in my life. I will not allow circumstances to steal it. Your Spirit produces joy in me continually, and I choose to walk in it, reflecting Your presence, peace, and power in every area of my life. In Jesus' name, Amen.

FURTHER STUDIES	DAILY BIBLE READING PLAN
John 15:11; Galatians 5:22 NIV; Nehemiah 8:10 NLT	Lev 13; Mat 28

3  8

LIBERTY BY THE SPIRIT

Wednesday, February 18, 2026

“Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.”—2 Corinthians 3:17 (KJV)

The presence of the Holy Spirit in your life is life-transforming. Wherever the Spirit of the Lord dwells, liberty follows. This liberty is not beyond physical or emotional; it is a spiritual freedom: a liberation that enables you to live according to God's will, free from the chains of sin and condemnation.

In 2 Corinthians, Paul contrasts the old covenant, which brought awareness of sin and condemnation, with the new life of the Spirit, which brings righteousness and life. The Spirit does not give you freedom to sin; rather, He enables you to live a holy, righteous, and victorious life. Through this freedom, you can walk in the will of God, led by the Spirit, and no longer enslaved by fear or guilt.

This liberty also grants you boldness to approach God directly. The veil that once separated humanity from God's presence has been removed through Christ, giving you unrestricted access to fellowship with the Father. You can now fellowship with God in confidence and experience His guidance.

Galatians 5:1 KJV says, “Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage”. Freedom in the Spirit is both your privilege in Christ and a responsibility. It is the power to live righteously and reflect God's character in every area of your life.

To experience this liberty daily, yield to the Spirit, obey His leading, and embrace the truth that you are no longer a servant to sin. As the Holy Spirit guides you, your life will reflect this freedom. Glory to God!

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Father, I thank You for the liberty I have in you. I live freely from sin, condemnation, and fear. I walk boldly in Your presence, I'm empowered by your Spirit, reflecting Your righteousness and life in all I do. I will not be entangled in bondage again, but I will remain steadfast in the freedom Christ has given me. In Jesus' name, Amen.

FURTHER STUDIES	DAILY BIBLE READING PLAN
Galatians 5:1 KJV; Romans 8:2 KJV; John 8:36 KJV	Lev 14; Mk 1

3 8
LIVING FOR GOD

Thursday, February 19, 2026

*“For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain.” — Philippians 1:21 (NKJV)

Living for God is beyond moral behavior or religious activity; it is a surrendered life to Christ. It means you don't live for yourself any more. Living for yourself simply means living a selfish life: making decisions based on comfort, desire, or convenience without considering God's will. Selfish living disregards God's heart and purpose. True Christian living flows from relationship with God, not obligation. We do not live for God to earn His love; we live for Him because we already have it and desire to please Him.

Paul urges us: “I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service” (Romans 12:1, NKJV). Living for God involves daily choices to yield our thoughts, desires, and actions to Him. It is a continual offering, shaped by gratitude for His mercy rather than fear of punishment. Each decision to align with His will is a step away from self-centered living and toward Christ-centered living.

Jesus made it clear that following Him requires wholehearted commitment: “If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow Me” (Luke 9:23, NKJV). Denying oneself is not self-hatred, but a willing surrender of self-rule. It is choosing God's desires over personal comfort & His plans over personal preference. This will change your priorities and decisions, ensuring that every action honors Him rather than selfish impulses.

Living for God also reshapes our impact in the world. Paul explains, “For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand that we should walk in them” (Ephesians 2:10, NKJV). Doing the will of God becomes a joyful expression of love when we understand that God has designed meaningful works for us.

Ultimately, living for God is love in action. When you surrender daily, your life becomes a testimony of His grace. The world is transformed not by self-centered people, but by those who prioritize God above all. Choose daily to live for Him, not yourself, and let every thought, word, and action glorify your Creator.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Dear LORD, I am fully determined to stop living for myself and live entirely for You. I surrender my desires, plans, and actions to Your will. Let my life honor You, reflect Christ, and fulfill Your purpose. I declare that from this day forward, I live to please You, Lord. In Jesus' name, Amen.

FURTHER STUDIES	DAILY BIBLE READING PLAN
Colossians 3:1–3; 2 Corinthians 5:15; Galatians 2:20	Lev 15-16

3  8

THE ABSOLUTE INTEGRITY OF GOD'S WORD

Friday, February 20, 2026

"For every word of God is pure; He is a shield to those who put their trust in Him."— Proverbs 30:5 KJV

Psalm 12:6 (TPT) says, "For every word GOD speaks is sure and reliable. His truth is tested, found to be flawless, and ever faithful. It's as pure as silver refined seven times in a crucible of clay." The Words God speaks possess His nature and authority. God's Words are pure, tested, and eternally reliable. Nothing proceeds from God that lacks perfection. His Words are not shaped by time, emotion, or circumstance; they stand complete and established forever. As silver refined repeatedly in fire emerges free from every impurity, so God's Word has been proven flawless, unchanging, incorruptible, and can be trusted with your life.

God's Word is alive. It's not just informative; it's active. When God speaks, His Words have creative power and divine intent. Truth flows from Him without distortion, for He cannot contradict His own nature. Faithfulness, accuracy, and consistency are woven into every utterance He releases.

The refining image reveals more than purity; it reveals value. Silver refined seven times speaks of completeness and excellence. In the same way, God's Word is of the highest worth, fully sufficient and eternally dependable. It stands as the final authority over life, purpose, and destiny.

As you receive GODS word into your heart, it works with divine precision. It will shape your thoughts, governs decisions, and produce a life that reflects Christ's nature and standard. God's Word establishes how we live. It does not weaken under pressure or lose relevance with generations. It remains victorious, carrying the same power today as when it was first spoken.

To live by God's Word is to live by truth that cannot fail. His Word is dependable and will define your reality and sustain your faith. What God has spoken is settled, and His Word will always fulfill its assignment.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Father, I receive Your Word as pure, perfect, and final. Your word governs my thoughts and it shapes my life. My heart is refined by Your Word, and my mind is established in certainty. I stand firm in Your word, and my life reflects Your faithfulness. Amen.

FURTHER STUDIES	DAILY BIBLE READING PLAN
Psalm 119:140; Isaiah 40:8 NLT; John 17:17 NKJV	Lev 17-18; Mk 2

THE EFFULGENCE OF GOD'S GLORY

Saturday, February 21, 2026

"But we all, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as by the Spirit of the Lord." — 2 Corinthians 3:18 (NKJV)

The word "effulgence" means brilliant radiance, splendor, or a shining forth of light. It often describes dazzling brightness, like the sun or stars, and can also refer to a radiant inner glow; like the presence of God shining through someone. God made you to reflect His glory. In essence, you are the effulgence of God's glory. God's Spirit lives in you, and His light shines through your life. Wherever we go, the radiance of His presence can be seen, felt, and experienced by others.

As God's glory dwells in us, it changes the way people encounter life. In Paul's epistle in 2 Corinthians 3:18, NKJV, He said that we are being transformed "from glory to glory". This means the more we abide in Him, the more His brilliance shows through our character, words, and actions. The world may notice our kindness, hope, and joy; and even if they don't name it, God's presence is radiating through us.

Jesus exemplified perfect effulgence as detailed in John 1:14, KJV: "And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth." He carried God's glory in every word and action. Today, His Spirit empowers us to carry that same divine radiance. Wherever we go (home, work, school, or city), our lives can reflect God's splendor and touch the hearts of others.

Paul writes in Philippians 2: 14-15, NKJV: “Do all things without complaining and disputing, that you may become blameless and harmless, children of God without fault in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world.” When we yield ourselves to God, His brilliance flows freely through us, making us living testimonies of His glory. Being the effulgence of God's glory is a privilege and also a responsibility. Our lives become mirrors reflecting His divine light. Let's continue to shine His glory in our world.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Father, I thank You that Your Spirit tabernacles in me. I affirm that I am the effulgence of Your glory, and Your light radiates through my life. All my words, actions, and thoughts reflect You and brings hope, love, and joy to others. In Jesus' name, Amen.

FURTHER STUDIES	DAILY BIBLE READING PLAN
2 Corinthians 4:6; Isaiah 60:1–3; Matthew 5:14–16	Lev 19-20; Mk 3

THE AUTHORITY OF GOD'S WORD

Sunday, February 22, 2026

"All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness"— 2 Timothy 3:16

God's Word has great authority above everything else because it comes directly from Him. The Scriptures are not human ideas; they are God-breathed and divinely given. Every sentence has a purpose: to teach, correct, and train the believer in righteous living. When God's Word speaks, it speaks with power, precision, and finality, equipping you fully for every good work He has prepared for you.

The authority and infallibility of the Word originate from divine inspiration. This inspiration is one infused with the breath of God, similar to how God breathed life into Adam in Genesis 2:7; the same breath that made Adam a living soul. Though the scriptures are written by men, they originated from God Himself. The Holy Spirit guided every writer, ensuring accuracy: "For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost" (2 Peter 1:21, KJV). This divine source guarantees that God's Word can be trusted completely in every situation and season of life.

Jesus clearly affirmed the authority of Scripture throughout His ministry. He quoted it, lived by it, and fulfilled it: "Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law." (Matthew 5:18, KJV). By honoring Scripture, Jesus established it as enduring and unchanging. If the Son of God submitted Himself to the authority of the Word, then, we all are called to do the same.

In the life of the Church, God's Word remains central. The early believers devoted themselves to teachings grounded in Scripture, and their spiritual growth continued to flow from that commitment: “And they continued steadfastly in the apostles’ doctrine” (Acts 2:42, KJV). A church that stands strong is one that stands on the Word.

God's Word is also the ultimate standard of truth. In these last days where people are coming up with various opinions and shifting of values, the scripture is truth, and it provides us a clear direction: “Thy word is truth” (John 17:17, KJV). It sanctifies, guides, and anchors the believer in God's will. Moving on, rest in the sufficiency of God's Word. It contains everything needed for salvation, wisdom, and Godly living. Trust its authority, submit to its guidance, and allow it to shape every area of your life.

PRAYER/DECLARATION

Father, I thank You for the authority of Your Word. I submit my heart, mind, and life to your word. Your Word instructs me, corrects me, and equips me for every good work. I live by Your word today, and I will always trust it above every other thing in Jesus' name, Amen.

FURTHER STUDIES	DAILY BIBLE READING PLAN
Psalm 119:89; Isaiah 40:8; Hebrews 4:12	Lev 21-22

3 8
THE GOD CLASS

Monday, February 23, 2026

“So God created man in His own image, in the image of God created He him.”

— Genesis 1:27 (KJV)

Every system in the natural world operates by class. Class determines identity, capacity, and function. In the spirit realm, God also established a class system; but unlike human systems, it is not based on effort, achievement, or status. It is rooted in origin. From the beginning, humanity was created in the image and likeness of God. This positioned man in God's class (His species), with the capacity to relate to Him, represent Him, and function in His authority. Scripture affirms this reality: “I have said, Ye are Gods; and all of you are children of the Most High” (Psalms 82:6, KJV).

The God Class is revealed through the principle of shared nature. In biological order, class determines association and interaction. Humans do not fellowship with animals because fellowship flows from shared nature. Chickens do not relate with dogs, and fish do not commune with birds. In the same way, God fellowships with man because man was created with God-consciousness and divine capacity.

Another defining purpose of the God Class is dominion. God did not create man merely to exist; He created man to rule.

Dominion is not ambition; it is inheritance. Our authority flows from our identity in Christ, not our effort. When God declared, “Let them have dominion,” He was expressing the natural outcome of His image within man: “Let us make man in our image... and let them have dominion” (Genesis 1:26, KJV).

Through Christ, our place in the GOD Class is fully restored. Sin affected expression, but it never cancelled God's original intention. In Christ, believers receive the life and nature of God again. We are not just forgiven; we are recreated, restored to sonship, and empowered to live from divine nature. That's what 2 Peter 1:4, KJV reveals: “That you might be partakers of the divine nature.”

The GOD Class also includes a process of growth, discipline, and maturity. Challenges do not disqualify us; they refine us. His Grace ensures our progress at all times. God's ultimate goal is not public recognition, but inward transformation, until Christ is fully revealed through us: “To be conformed to the image of His Son” (Romans 8:29, KJV).

PRAYER/DECLARATION

I affirm that I am created in the image and likeness of God. I belong to the GOD Class: The God's species. I walk in fellowship with the Father, operate in divine authority, and manifest God's life on the earth. I think from the standpoint of my identity, and live as God's representative. In Jesus' name, Amen.

FURTHER STUDIES	DAILY BIBLE READING PLAN
Colossians 3:10 KJV; John 15:4–5 KJV; Ephesians 2:10 KJV	Lev 23-24; Mk 4

3  8

THE INCORRUPTIBLE LIFE

Tuesday, February 24, 2026

“Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.”

— 1 Peter 1:23 (KJV)

Salvation ushered you into something extraordinary. When you received Christ, you received eternal life: the very life and nature of God. This life is not symbolic, emotional, or temporary. It is divine, real, and eternal. The new birth introduced you into a realm where life is governed by incorruption.

The apostle Peter describes this life as coming from an incorruptible seed. This seed represents the divine nature imparted to every believer. Unlike natural life, which is subject to decay, limitation, and death, this life is imperishable. It does not deteriorate, weaken, or expire. It carries the same quality of life that flows from God Himself.

This new birth is made possible through the living and enduring Word of God. The Word is alive, active, and eternal. It is not confined to time or circumstance. When the Word was received into your heart, it produced regeneration; an entirely new creation. The same Word that gave birth to this life continues to sustain, energize, and preserve it.

Because the Word abides forever, the life it produces also abides forever. This incorruptible life within you is the source of strength, growth, and spiritual vitality. It defines your identity, shapes your consciousness, and empowers you to live above corruption and decay. You do not struggle to maintain this life; it maintains you.

This revelation establishes confidence and boldness in the Christian walk. What God has planted in you cannot be destroyed. The seed is divine, the life is eternal, and the source is the living Word. You carry within you a life that triumphs over time, weakness, and death.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

I acknowledge the incorruptible life at work in me. I am born of the living and enduring Word, and I carry the divine nature. This life in me is eternal, powerful, and victorious. I live from this life, I grow by this life, and I manifest its reality daily. I walk in strength, confidence, and divine vitality in Jesus' name, Amen.

FURTHER STUDIES	DAILY BIBLE READING PLAN
John 1:12–13 KJV; John 5:24 KJV; 2 Peter 1:3–4 KJV	Lev 25; Mk 5

3 ————— 8

THE LIFE OF OBEDIENCE

—————

Wednesday, February 25, 2026

*“Just as through the disobedience of the one man the many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of the one man the many will be made righteous.” — Romans 5:19 (NIV)

Every believer is called into a life of obedience; not as a burden to achieve, but as a nature to live from. Obedience is not foreign to us; it is the very life we inherited in Christ. Through His redemptive work, Jesus broke the power of the enemy that once held humanity captive and restrained us from living as God intended. The days of striving in our own strength to obey are over. In Christ, obedience flows from freedom, not fear.

The obedience of Christ was intentional and complete, and its purpose is threefold. First, He obeyed as our example. John 6:38, NIV says, “For I have come down from heaven not to do my will but to do the will of him who sent me”. Jesus showed us what true obedience looks like; wholehearted surrender to the Father's will. His life reveals that obedience is not selective but joyful alignment with God's purposes.

Second, Christ obeyed as our guarantee. By His perfect obedience, He fulfilled all righteousness on our behalf. Philippians 2:8, NIV says, “He humbled himself by becoming obedient to death; even death on a cross.” In His death, Jesus demonstrated that obedience means readiness to obey to the uttermost. He bore the guilt of our disobedience and offered Himself as a substitutionary sacrifice, opening the way for us to live free from condemnation.

Third, Christ obeyed as our leader. The disobedience of Adam, with all its devastating effects, was put away and replaced by the obedience of Christ. Legally, we are justified; declared righteous before God. Vitally, we are united with Christ in His death and resurrection. The Bible says, “We were therefore buried with him through baptism into death... that we too may live a new life” (Romans 6:4, NIV). The life we now live is His life within us.

This means obedience is no longer an external demand but an internal reality. As Christ lives in us, His obedient life is expressed through us. We are dead to sin and alive to God, empowered to walk in joyful submission. Obedience is the fruit of our union with Christ and the pathway into the fullness of life God has called us to.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Father, I thank You that in Christ I have received a new nature; one marked by obedience. I declare that I am dead to sin and alive to God. The life of Christ flows through me, empowering me to walk in obedience joyfully and completely. I walk today in freedom, righteousness, and alignment with Your will, in Jesus' name. Amen.

FURTHER STUDIES	DAILY BIBLE READING PLAN
Hebrews 5:8–9; Romans 8:1–4; Galatians 2:20	Lev 26-27

3 8
THE PREVAILING WORD

Thursday, February 26, 2026

*“So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed.”— Acts 19:20 (KJV)

The prevailing Word means that the Word of God has the ability to prevail. God's Word is inherently powerful and transformative, capable of changing lives and societies. It is not ordinary words; it carries divine life and authority. This is why you should have confidence in its ability to prevail against traditional, spiritual, and physical opposition. Wherever the Word of God is given free course, it dominates circumstances and produces undeniable results.

The New Living Translation of Acts 19:20 says, “So the message about the Lord spread widely and had a powerful effect.” This means that as the Word of God grows in your life, it will have a powerful effect in your life. Growth precedes effect. When the Word increases in you, its influence becomes evident in your thoughts, decisions, and experiences. This also means God's Word can have a powerful effect on any individual, group of people, family, nation, or any situation.

Just a quick question: have you given God's Word permission to grow in you? Have you ever thought that as you give room for God's Word to grow in you, it will prevail over any situation you are faced with? It surely does. Amen! The Word only prevails where it is welcomed, believed, and acted upon. When you consciously make space for the Word through study, meditation, and confession, it rises to take control of your life.

Jeremiah 23:29 says, “Is not My word like fire,” declares the LORD, “and like a hammer that smashes a rock?” Rocks and mountains signify obstacles and the challenges of life. The phrase “like a hammer that smashes” means that God's Word has the ability to smash (break into pieces) every challenge in life. No obstacle is too hard or too stubborn for the Word. That's the prevailing effect of the Word.

Some people can pray for five hours daily and don't give attention to learning and studying the Word. Many times, the answer you need is in the Word, and with the Word, you are able to pray rightly. The Word gives direction to prayer and produces lasting results.

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Dear Father, I thank You for the prevailing power of Your Word. I give Your Word permission to grow mightily in me. As it grows, it prevails over every obstacle, challenge, and opposition in my life. I declare that the Word of God is working powerfully in me, producing results and victories daily. In Jesus' name, Amen.

FURTHER STUDIES	DAILY BIBLE READING PLAN
Isaiah 55:10–11; Hebrews 4:12; Colossians 3:16	Num 1

3 THINK BIG

Friday, February 27, 2026

“For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he.” — Proverbs 23:7 (KJV)

Your life moves in the direction of your thoughts. You are not separated from what occupies your mind; your thoughts shape your actions, decisions, and outcome in life. When you think small, you live small. When you think big, your life expands in purpose, capacity, and impact. Your mind is powerful.

Many people continually dwell on failure, sickness, poverty, loss, and fear. These thoughts drain their strength, weaken their faith, and limit their progress. Yet the same mental energy used to replay negativity can be redirected toward something better, and more productive. Your mind was designed to host visions and possibilities.

Proverbs 4:23, KJV instructs you clearly: “Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.” Your heart represents the core of your being: your thoughts, intentions, emotions, and will. Guarding it is not optional; it is a continuous responsibility. Like a watchman protecting a city, you must stay alert about what you allow into your heart.

Your heart determines the quality of your life. Just as a spring supplies water that affects everything around it, your inner thoughts influence every outward experience. What you repeatedly think on eventually shows up in how you live. This is why you must deliberately reject negative, limiting, and low-life thoughts. Do not allow yesterday's painful experiences to imprison your future.

Replace unproductive thoughts with God's Word. Begin to think big: about growth, purpose, impact, blessings, and progress. Elevate your mindset to be attuned with God's vision for your life. Philippians 4:8 (KJV) provides us a clear framework: “Whatsoever things are true, honest, just, pure, lovely, of good report... think on these things.” These thoughts will nourish your faith and position you for forward movement

Thinking big is not pride; it is alignment with divine possibilities. As you guard your heart and intentionally feed your mind with the right thought, your life will reflect strength, and excellence. Your thinking sets the ceiling; lift it and watch your life rise accordingly. Glory to God!

PRAYER/DECLARATION

I will always guard my heart diligently. I fill my mind with God's Word, faith-filled, and visionary thoughts. I think big, greatness, and walk in the fullness of what You have prepared for me. In Jesus' name, Amen.

FURTHER STUDIES	DAILY BIBLE READING PLAN
Proverbs 4:23; Romans 12:2; Philippians 4:8	Num 2-3; Mk 6

YOU HAVE THE MIND OF CHRIST

Saturday, February 28, 2026

"For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ." — 1 Corinthians 2:16 (KJV)

This scripture reveals a profound reality of the believer's life in Christ. To have the mind of Christ means that through the Holy Spirit, you can understand God's will and purposes. You now have access to divine wisdom. This is not something you are trying to attain; it is a present possession. When you were born again, you received the capacity to think, perceive, and respond from God's perspective.

You have been granted the mind of Christ, which allows you to discern spiritual truths and live according to God's will. This means you are not meant to be confused, uncertain, or directionless. The Holy Spirit illuminates your understanding so you can know what to do, how to respond, and when to act. With the mind of Christ, you are equipped to make decisions that align with God's perfect plan, even in complex or challenging situations.

The "mind of Christ" also implies a transformation and renewal of thought. Romans 12:2 says, "Don't copy the behavior and customs of this world, but let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think." The transformation of your life begins with the transformation of your mind. As you renew your mind with God's Word, it becomes easy to discern the mind of God over any issue. Your thoughts become refined, your perspectives elevated, and your responses governed by truth.

Philippians 2:5 (KJV) says, “Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus.” This is both an instruction and an invitation. You are to consciously yield your thoughts to the influence of God's Word and allow Christ's mindset (His humility, obedience, love, and wisdom) to find expression through you. As you meditate on the Word, the mind of Christ becomes dominant in your daily life. Refuse to think like the world, for You have the mind of Christ. Glory to God!

PRAYER / DECLARATION

Dear Father, I thank You that I have the mind of Christ. Through the Holy Spirit, I understand Your will and walk in divine wisdom. My mind is renewed by Your Word, and I discern rightly in every situation. I refuse confusion and worldly thinking. I declare that my thoughts are aligned with Christ, and I live daily according to Your perfect will. In Jesus' name, Amen.

FURTHER STUDIES	DAILY BIBLE READING PLAN
Romans 8:5–6 KJV; Ephesians 1:17–18 KJV; Colossians 3:10 KJV	Num 4

HAVE YOU EVER WONDERED WHAT IT MEANS TO BE SAVED?
ARE YOU READY FOR A RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD AND NOT JUST RELIGION?

Many people think that having a relationship with GOD is about joining a religion or a church denomination. The simple truth is that it's all about a relationship with GOD, our Maker. It's about giving your heart and life to JESUS CHRIST, the Son of God, who died for your sins and the sins of the whole world so that you don't have to spend eternity separated from GOD.

Maybe you've felt unworthy of salvation because of things you've done in the past. Perhaps you've believed that your good works or simply being a "good" person would save you. Or maybe you thought you were saved just because you were baptized or prayed a prayer, without experiencing a real change of heart.

The good news is that JESUS is calling you right now to trust and believe in HIM. Trust that HE has done all the work and paid the price for your sins. JESUS died, was buried, and rose from the dead because He took the penalty for your sins upon Himself. He died so that you could have eternal life. GOD simply asks you to believe in JESUS CHRIST and receive HIS free gift of salvation so you can live an abundant life with GOD both here on earth and for all eternity. I invite you now to accept JESUS CHRIST into your heart by saying this prayer:

PRAYER OF SALVATION

O Lord God, I believe with all my heart in Jesus Christ, the Son of the living God. I believe He died for me, You raised Him from the dead, and He is alive today. I confess with my mouth that Jesus Christ is LORD. From this moment, I accept JESUS CHRIST into my heart as my personal LORD and SAVIOR. I declare that I am saved. LORD, take full control of my life, fill me with The HOLY SPIRIT, and help me to serve You, live for You, and glorify You now and forever. Amen!

February, 2026

Scan the QR Code to read the devotional
for each day.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Chuks Akuma is the presiding pastor of Fountain of Life Church, USA, with a mission to help men and women discover and fulfill their purpose in Christ and awaken the divine realities of God in them. Pastor Chuks is passionate about reaching people with God's presence and His Word. He has guided many in discovering their purpose and developing an intimate relationship with the Lord.

This daily devotional is designed to help you understand God's amazing plans for your life, provide daily inspiration, and empower you to live a victorious, successful, and devoted Christian life

978-978-768-893-9